Dear Eva,

Just a few lines and hope you are doing better with your arthritus. It is no fun.

I pray for you and your family. You have nice looking children.

My Dad is Bert Miller. He died May 26, 1966. He was 64 yrs. old. Had worked at Uniroyal for 46 yrs. They used to call it Ball Band back years ago.

Uncle Curt and Aunt Bessie are both gone. Isaac Miller was their Dad.

I thank you for the picture of you and your family, and also for the nice letters you have written to me.

It has been awful hot here as everywhere else. When it is weather like this I stay in a lot.

My Mother is about the same. Her mind is not too good, so we now have a girl staying with her for 5 days a week.

We are trying to find someone for the week end.

She was staying with us girls, so we thought it would be better for her if we could get her back in her own home. She just lives across the alley from me. She has lived their 61 yrs. now.

Tonight is our Bible School Program & we will have cake & drinks afterwards .So I will leave early tonight. Irene & I had the 1st. & second grades.

I haven't seen Mae Sherman since Rosa was here the end of May. Mae fell about 3 weeks ago and I don't see her out too much. She used to go walking every day and go past my house. She is pretty spry. I think she is 90 yrs. old now as of May.

I will close for now and God bless you and all your nice family. I have enjoyed your letters very much.

Here are some more pictures. I don't know if they are the same or not.. I hope not. Write when you can.

Love

Ellen &
Bill

Mr. Diffenderffer also stated:

> The Pennsylvania-German Society feels at home everywhere throughout this broad Commonwealth. Wherever her sons are, and where are they not? there is her home. But when she comes to Philadelphia, as she does to-day, and remembers that earliest colony of stout-hearted Crefelders who planted their hearth-stones within the present boundaries of this beautiful city, two hundred and thirteen years ago, she feels that she comes not as an alien, nor even as a stranger, but like one who, after wandering long in foreign lands, returns again to resume a long neglected inheritance; she feels that McGregor's foot is planted on his native heath again.

The address is published on the front page of The Daily New Era, Lancaster, Pa., for October 15, 1896, and on pages 14-17, Volume VII, Pennsylvania German Society, 1897.

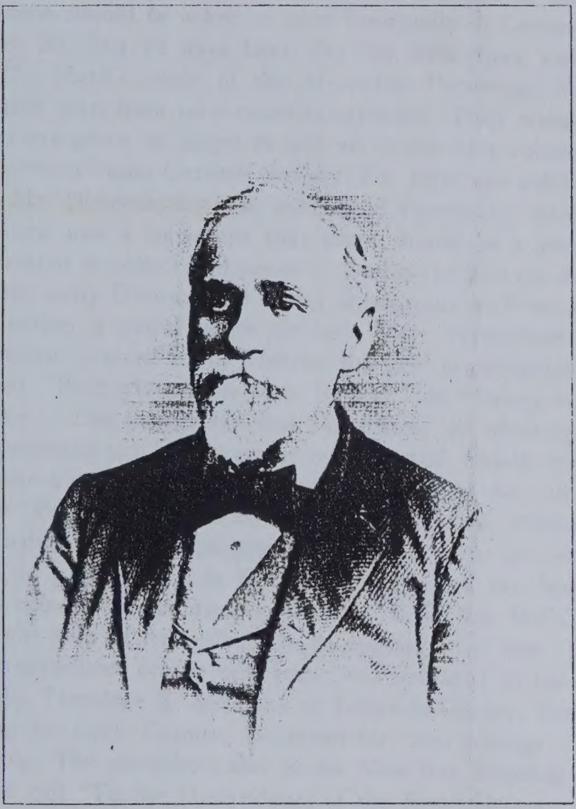
The two papers presented by Sachse and Diffenderffer on October 15, 1896, in Philadelphia, were published in greatly extended form the next year as Parts I and II, respectively, of the Narrative and Critical History. The two presentations comprised an excellent example for the volumes which were to follow in this lengthy series.

The Society's Narrative and Critical History received wide acclaim. It was profusely illustrated to World War I and was prepared by a handful of competent scholars who were devoted to the task. The titles and authors of the respective parts up to World War I were as follows:

I. The Fatherland: (1450-1700) Showing the Part it Bore in the Discovery, Exploration and Development of the Western Continent, with special reference to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, 225 pages, 1897, by Julius F. Sachse.

II. The German Exodus to England in 1709. (Massenauswanderung der Pfälzer), 158 pages, 1897, by Frank Ried Diffenderffer.

III. The German Emigration to America, 1709-1740, 121 pages, 1898, by Henry Eyster Jacobs.



F. R. Diffenderffer

FRANK RIED DIFFENDERFFER, NEWSPAPER EDITOR AND HISTORICAL WRITER

Diffenderffer's love of Pennsylvania and the Pennsylvania Germans prompted him to assemble an extensive collection of material about the history of his native State and about his own people. The collection was given to and is preserved by Franklin and Marshall College.—Photograph courtesy Herbert B. Anstaett, Librarian, Franklin and Marshall College.

After discussion of the matter of forming a society it was agreed that representative men in the German counties in Eastern Pennsylvania should be asked to meet informally in Lancaster on February 26, just 12 days later. On the 26th there was a meeting in Dr. Hark's study at the Moravian Parsonage in Lancaster. Sixteen men from nine counties attended. Their names and locations are given on pages vi and vii of the first volume issued by the Pennsylvania German Society. Dr. Egle was asked to preside and Mr. Diffenderffer was selected as temporary secretary.

There was a consensus that there should be a permanent organization to collect and preserve landmarks and records concerning the early German and Swiss immigrants to Pennsylvania and to develop a genial spirit between their descendants. Vigorous discussion evolved as to whether the new organization should be named "Pennsylvania-German Society" or "Pennsylvania-Dutch Society." The suggestion that the matter of selecting the name be postponed to a later meeting was rejected. Finally it was agreed to issue a call for a general convention and in the call to use the name "Pennsylvania-German Society." Lebanon, Philadelphia and Lancaster were each suggested as place for the convention to be held. It was decided to hold it at Lancaster, on April 15. Dr. Egle was instructed to prepare the "Call" for the Convention, with the help of five others, to be appointed by him. The invitation, reproduced on the next page, was prepared by the committee —Egle, Theodore E. Schmauk of Lebanon County, Stahr, Hiram Young of York County, Diffenderffer, and George F. Baer of Reading. The committee met in the New Era Building on March 9. The call "To the Descendants of the Early German and Swiss Settlers in Pennsylvania, Wheresoever Dispersed" was circulated widely through the mail and was reproduced in newspapers. Today a copy of the original is a collector's item, a broadside neatly printed, measuring eight inches wide and ten and one-half inches high.

THE CONVENTION
IN LANCASTER COUNTY COURTHOUSE, APRIL 15, 1891

The Convention met in the Courthouse in Lancaster on February 15, 1891, as scheduled, and formally established the Pennsylvania German Society.

Frederick, Maryland, was as great perhaps as the number of books printed in Boston in the colonial period, while technically the advantage was in favor of the Pennsylvania German printers. By encouraging the growth of a more general interest in the history of the Pennsylvania Germans and by emphasizing their influence upon the development of civil and religious liberty in America, such a society as has been suggested would serve a useful purpose.

The story of civilization in Pennsylvania is more complex than that of any other State. That is one reason why it has never been told, and it is one reason why outsiders, failing to understand results which are the product of many remote and different causes, and oblivious to their own ignorance, adopt the easy alternative of Mr. ROOSEVELT'S manner. While the Pennsylvania Germans have had their own ideas of other people, they have made the mistake of caring little what other people thought of them, but even here they show a greater advance from colonial narrowness than their critics. The Pennsylvania German has ceased to hold that "Yankee" is a synonym for "thief," but the Eastern idea of the Pennsylvania German has apparently undergone little change.

The Pennsylvania German is such a poor boaster that there may be some doubt whether he would make a success of a society after the manner of the New England or Holland Society. To satisfy him it would have to have some definite, practical and immediate end to be attained, and such a motive or object could doubtless be found.

PRELIMINARY MEETINGS
ON FEBRUARY 14 AND 26, 1891, IN LANCASTER, PA.

Frank R. Diffenderffer, one of the editors of the New Era in Lancaster, started correspondence with Dr. William H. Egle on the idea of organizing a Pennsylvania German Society. Dr. Egle accepted an invitation to come to Lancaster to discuss this subject. On February 14, 1891, he met with Dr. John S. Stahr, then President of Franklin and Marshall College, Dr. J. Max Hark, Moravian minister, Dr. R. K. Buehrle, City Superintendent of Lancaster Schools, Dr. E. O. Lyte of Millersville State Normal School, and Mr. Diffenderffer, all of whom had been invited to meet with Egle. The meeting was held in the editorial rooms of the New Era.

from the founding of the Society in the early spring of 1891. In his Presidential Address in Lancaster before the Society, November 13, 1914, he sketched its origin and history, making the following remarks about origin:

> It is just twenty-four years ago. It was in November, 1890, when the late Dr. W. H. Egle, the State Librarian at Harrisburg, consulted with me, at a meeting of the Pennsylvania Historical Society at Philadelphia, upon the advisability of forming a patriotic hereditary society from the descendants of the early German and Swiss emigrants to Pennsylvania upon the same lines as the lately formed Society of the Sons of the Revolution, from which so many Pennsylvania-Germans [only those without an ancestor in the Revolution] were debarred, as it was their ancestors who had helped to feed and clothe the patriot army, but had not given any military service. (Pages 15-16, volume XXV, publications of the Pennsylvania German Society.)

The introductory part of the Pennsylvania German Society's first volume, in 1891, is a four-page history of the Society, written by its secretary, Frank R. Diffenderffer. These statements by Sachse and Diffenderffer do not coincide in all respects. Nevertheless, both are useful when attempting to visualize the formation of the Society.

EDITORIALS IN THE LEBANON DAILY REPORT

Late in 1890 a newspaper in Lebanon, Pa., the Daily Report, edited by Lee L. Grumbine, carried a torch for the Pennsylvania Germans. Its second edition for December 26, 1890, had an editorial which commented on "Forefathers' Day," an annual event in memory of the Pilgrim Fathers of New England. The editorial pointed to the lack of recognition given by historians to the worth and achievements of the Pennsylvania German "who not only occupies over half of the State but whose descendants have migrated north, east, south and west."

The next day the second edition of the Lebanon Daily Report had a long article on its front page, and continued within the issue, "Our German Ancestry." It was an address which had been made

COMMENTS BY PENNYPACKER, SACHSE AND DIFFENDERFFER ABOUT THE FOUNDING

The interest that had been awakening since the Civil War, in the Pennsylvania Germans and their dialect, was bound to bring about some dramatic effect. Undoubtedly the cumulative result of the work of Cassel, Rauch, Harbaugh, Haldeman, Horne, Learned, and others produced a climate in which a society of Pennsylvania Germans could come forth. Perhaps no single book, article or event touched off the formation of the Society in 1891. Years later, in his last book, The Autobiography of a Pennsylvanian, published in 1918, shortly after his death, Samuel Whitaker Pennypacker, one of the most distinguished Pennsylvania German scholars, wrote:

> In 1891 the Pennsylvania German Society was organized among the descendants of the early German and Swiss settlers of the state. Among those who took the preliminary steps were Dr. William H. Egle, F. R. Diffenderffer of Lancaster, Col. T. C. Zimmerman of Berks, Julius F. Sachse, George F. Baer, General James A. Beaver and myself. No other of the different race societies has been so energetic in the study of the sources of history or so prolific in the production of literature. My Settlement of Germantown appeared among its publications and for one year I was president of the society (Page 229).

Dr. Julius F. Sachse was President of the Pennsylvania German Society in 1914, after having been treasurer for 23 years, its very close. The value of this testimonial is greatly enhanced by the fact, that the Democratic members of the present Legislature, in the midst of peculiar difficulties, have sustained the principles of their party with an ability, firmness and union, which have never been surpassed by any of their predecessors.

INVITATION TO A PUBLIC DINNER FROM DEMOCRATIC FELLOW-CITIZENS AND NEIGHBORS OF LANCASTER CITY AND COUNTY.[36]

The Lancaster Intelligencer of Tuesday, April 10th, 1849, contained the following:

"Since his return to this city, Mr. Buchanan has been personally waited on by numbers of his old personal and political friends from all sections of the county, who have come to revive former intimacies and recount interesting reminiscences of the eventful past. To these visits has been added a more general manifestation, by the tender of a public dinner, on the part of the Democracy of the city and county, which has elicited the subjoined interesting correspondence.

"Among the signers to the letter of invitation, the reader will discover the names of those staunch and true Democrats, who in sunshine and in storm, in good and evil report, have upheld the time-honored emblems of Democracy. These men have known James Buchanan long and well. They knew him when pursuing his humbler professional avocations, more than a quarter of a century ago, and they have watched his course as step by step he has progressed to the highest honors of the Republic. Whilst his brilliant public career has been to them a source of unmingled pride, they have not been unmindful of the fact, that he has passed through all the allurements of place and power, fame and fortune, and has preserved a personal reputation pure and unblemished.

"Of how comparatively few of our public men can it with truth be spoken, that to brilliant talents and rare intellectual acquirements they have added that elevated purity of morals, which alone constitutes a safe depository of power. The infirmities of frail humanity—the temptations which compass the pathway of the renowned—the flattery of friends, and the intoxicating influence of patronage and power—these too often lead irresistibly to the indulgence of those baser passions, which cast their dark shadows over the fair fame of the most gifted of our race. It furnishes just cause for gratitude, therefore, when a statesman returns, like Mr. Buchanan, to the bosom of his earlier associates and friends, after having endured the tests of more than two score years of public service, not only unscathed by the trying ordeal, but with the excellencies of his character displayed in yet more glowing and gratifying colors. Well may the friends of such an one rejoice in the revival of former intimacies—and well may he himself be lifted by the serenity of his mind, and the consciousness of a well-spent life, above the turmoils which too often embitter and degrade the struggles of contending partizanship."

[36] The Lancaster Intelligencer, Tuesday, April 10th, 1849.

The invitation is as follows:

"Lancaster, April 2nd, 1849.

"Hon. James Buchanan:

"Dear Sir:

"On your retirement from the office of secretary of state, to which, four years ago, you were called by President Polk, your Democratic fellow-citizens and neighbors of the city and county of Lancaster discharge a most agreeable duty in extending to you a cordial 'Welcome Home.' More than a quarter of a century has elapsed since you were first called from professional life, to engage in the more responsible and extended duties of a representative in Congress. With short intervals, you have continued in the public service ever since. During this period, many and trying have been the scenes through which the Republic has passed—momentous, and often exciting, the issues decided by the Federal Government! In most of them it has fallen to your lot, first as a member of the House of Representatives, then as a senator of the United States, and more recently as the first cabinet officer of the Executive, to act an important and conspicuous part. It may prove some recompense for your long and arduous public services, to be assured, that your Democratic fellow-citizens of the city and county of Lancaster, who were ever first and foremost to urge you upon the stage of public life, retain for you undiminished attachment, confidence and respect. To them your unsullied private and your brilliant public career have been alike a source of heartfelt satisfaction. They have been especially gratified with the important part you have taken in the foreign and domestic policy of the late administration, which for the magnitude and success of its measures, is without a parallel on the page of our country's history.

"We beg leave, therefore, on your return to private life, to welcome you to the society of your former neighbors and friends, and beg your acceptance of a public dinner at such time as may best comport with your convenience.

"With high regard,

"Your fellow-citizens,

Jacob

good business education, and is a man of practical business ideas. He was married, February 2, 1873, to Miss Bena D. Nofziger, an amiable lady of Fulton County, Ohio; she was a native of that county—four years her husband's junior, and had always resided there up to the time she came as a bride to Indiana. As the result of this marriage they have had two children—Gertrude Jerusha, born December 20; 1875, died August 6, 1879; Jessie Pearl, born April 3, 1879. Mr. and Mrs. Schlatter were both reared in the German Baptist faith, but are not members of any church. They take a highly moral course in life, and are exemplary in that direction, in the community where they live. They support the church for its beneficial effects on society, and stand up squarely to all that will advance its highest and best interests. Mr. Schlatter's integrity is known and established. In politics, he allies himself to the Democratic interests, but is quite liberal in his partisan views. He has resided on his present farm but five years. He has made those years tell, in making improvements of all kinds, that have added to its productiveness and appearance. He is a man of order; a judicious manager; genial as a companion and associate; has many of the elements of popularity; is full of the snap and vim that mean progress and success. Our patrons will be pleased to find a view of his home on another page of this history.

CONRAD H. VIBERG.

The subject of this narrative was born in Germany, near the city of Hanover, March 6, 1809. He was the son of Conrad and Caroline Viberg, both parents being native Germans, and both spending the full measure of their lives in their native land. Mr. Viberg came to this country in 1834, intending to return to the land of his nativity after a sojourn of four or five years. But, admiring the institutions here, and enjoying his associations so agreeably, he had formed endearing attachments—had become settled and contented. Besides, he had noted the superior advantages the poor man of industry here enjoyed, by way of acquiring a competence. These combined inducements determined his permanent continuance on this side of the Atlantic.

He first settled in Fairfield County, Ohio, and was there united in marriage with Miss Angeline Abright, March 6, 1835, she having emigrated from Germany the previous year.

Mr. Viburg was the second in a family of seven children, and the only one of the family who has ever come across the sea. Remaining five years in Fairfield County, he then removed to Williams County, of the same State. There he bought eighty acres of wild land, commencing at once to clear and improve. At the end of one year, however, he withdrew from this new farm, in seeking employment in the construction of the Wabash & Erie Canal. Finally, selling his farm, he engaged as foreman with a canal contractor (Col. Lemuel Jones). This position he held three successive years. Then, resuming his former pursuit (farming), for one season, he again accepted a situation as foreman with Col. Jones, until the completion of the canal.

Moving then to Huntington County, this State, he first leased, and later purchased of his former employer (Col Jones), the property known as the "Roanoke farm." Remaining there a number of years, he again changed locations, this time settling on his present farm in Cedar Creek Township, this county, where he has since continued to reside with entire contentment.

Twenty-four years here of diligent toil have resulted in many substantial improvements. In fact, his farm abounds in evidences of a high order of husbandry.

Mrs. Viberg was the daughter of Christ and Dorthea Abright. Both parents died in Germany, the land of their birth. Mrs. Viberg was one of three sisters. One of the other sisters accompanied her to America. Mr. and Mrs. Viberg have reared a family of nine children, four of them now living. Naming in order of birth we have—Lucinda, who married John Yahney; Harmon B., who married Augusta Nettleherst; Sophia, who is the wife of Rev. Florence Douglas, now Pastor of the Lutheran Church at La Otto, this county; Mary, Russellus L., Eliza, Lemuel A.; George H., who married Miss Mary Shambaugh and lives near his parents, and Sarah J., who married Samuel McCrory. This venerable couple are the grandparents of twenty-two children; also have two great-grandchildren, one living and one dead.

Mr. Viberg and wife are both consistent members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church. The sacred edifice wherein they worship is situated on one corner of Mr. Viberg's farm. The lot it occupies, and cemetery grounds adjacent, he donated the society; also contributed very largely toward the building of their house of worship. He has always given liberally in support of the organization, and has continuously served as one of its officers.

Mr. Viberg's political affinities have ever been with the Democratic party. In all public enterprises having a beneficial tendency, he has ever stood ready to give an ardent support. Honesty and integrity make up life's platform with him, his word being held in the highest estimation.

EEL RIVER TOWNSHIP.

LOCATION AND BOUNDARY.

Eel River is the northwestern township of Allen County, and comprises Congressional Township 32 north, of Range 11 east. It is bounded on the north by Noble County, east by Perry Township, south by Washington and Lake Townships, west by Whitley County, and has an area of 35.16 square miles.

NATURAL FEATURES.

The soil is clay, intermixed with sand, black loam and peat. It is watered by Eel River, which flows through the southern part of the township; Blue Grass Creek, which has its source in the northwestern part, and flows south, joining Eel River near Heller's Corners; and Willow Creek, which flows through the northeast corner, joining Cedar Creek in Perry Township.

The township was originally covered with a heavy growth of timber, embracing in its variety, white oak, burr oak, walnut, ash, beech, elm, poplar, hickory, etc.

EARLY SETTLEMENT.

In 1828, Joseph Crow, Wm. Kellison and —— Kellison, from Darke County, Ohio, settled on Section 32—the present site of the Geeseking farm. Here they erected cabins and cleared small portions of land. They remained but a few years, finally removing farther west.

Adam Hull, Sr., from Shelby County, Ohio, came to the township in December, 1830, and purchased the land of William Kellison, upon which there was a log cabin. The tract contained forty acres, and it was thought the cabin was within the boundary line of that farm; but when an accurate survey was made, Mr Hull found that he was living "beyond the lines," and accordingly purchased the forty-acre tract adjoining his own.

In 1834, Joseph Johnston and John R. Johnston, natives of Ohio, settled on Sections 21 and 28, respectively.

In June, 1835, John Valentine came from Ohio, and settled on Section 33, where his son, Jackson, now resides. The father resided in the township until his death; his wife survives him, and now lives on the old homestead with her son.

On the 6th of February, 1836, John P. Shoaff came from Miami County, Ohio, and settled on Section 13, where he still resides. A few weeks subsequent to his arrival F. C. Freeman, Samuel Hillegass, Samuel Shryock, Benjamin Mason,

The farm is now owned by his son, John M. Taylor, the present Treasurer of Allen County. Later in the same year (1836), George Greenwell and William Anderson settled in the eastern part of the township.

Between 1837 and 1840, came R. D. Baird, Solomon Bennett, John Bennett, William Bennett, Caleb Bennett, John McKee, Stephen Hathaway, —— Shilling, John R. Mayo and William Madden.

EARLY EVENTS.

The First Road.—In 1834, Adam Hull, assisted by some neighbors, cut a road from Heller's Corners to the east line of the township. It was never "viewed," and was located at random, and later surveys have caused its course to be so often changed that few traces of it now remain.

The First Death.—Late in the fall of 1832, a stranger, traveling on foot, sought the house of Adam Hull, and asked for lodging and food. He was taken in, and, during the night, he arose from his bed and walked toward the door, where he was seized with convulsions and died the next morning.

A few weeks subsequently, a family of emigrants by the name of Fosdick, stopped for the night with Mr. Hull, and it was ascertained that several of their children were suffering with scarlet fever. During the night, one child died, and, two days later, was followed by another. These children and the stranger previously alluded to, were buried on the south side of Eel River, in ground which was afterward consecrated for cemetery purposes.

The First Marriage.—About Christmas season, 1833, Squire Du Bois was called from Fort Wayne to perform the ceremony of uniting two young hearts in the sacred ties of matrimony. The wedding took place at the residence of Adam Hull, his daughter Barbara and Isaac Tibbets being the contracting parties.

The First School was taught in a cabin erected for that purpose in 1837, on the farm now owned by John R. Mayo. It was built almost entirely of hickory logs, and from this fact received the appellation of the "Hickory Schoolhouse." Among its surviving scholars are Thomas and William McKee, John M. Taylor and his sister, Mrs. Altha Hull.

The First Stock of Merchandise was opened in 1838, by Joseph Jones, at his own house, on the land now known as the Charles Hanna farm.

The First Blacksmith-Shop was conducted by Henry Bosler, who started the fires of his forge soon after his arrival in the township (1836).

sawed lumber, and the mill proved a profitable investment to its proprietors. It was operated successfully for a number of years, but was finally suffered to go to decay.

In 1855, Peter Heller erected a steam grist-mill near the saw-mill of Smith & Diffenderfer. He operated it successfully for several years, when it was destroyed by fire, and never rebuilt.

The First Post Office was established in 1834, and Adam Hull appointed Postmaster. He held the position until his death, which occurred September 1, 1837. Peter Heller was appointed his successor, and removed the office to his own house, when it received the name of Heller's Corner Post Office. In 1862, the office was removed to Wesley Chapel.

The First Election was held in 1836. Adam Hull and Mr. Bond were candidates for the office of Justice of the Peace, and the votes in favor of each candidate were found, when counted, to be equal in number. To spare the expense consequent upon another election, the candidates mutually agreed that the ballots should be placed in a hat, and the Judge be requested to draw one ticket from the number, the name it bore to indicate the successful competitor. The ticket was drawn accordingly, and the name it bore was that of Adam Hull, who was duly qualified as the first Justice of the Peace in the township.

CHURCHES.

Methodist Episcopal.—In the winter of 1837 and 1838, a class was organized at the house of John McKee, with ten members. John Bennett was appointed Class-Leader. They then had no Pastor, but were visited occasionally by Rev. James Ross, by whom services were conducted. In 1843, they erected a hewed-log house opposite the present site of Wesley Chapel, and consecrated it as a house of worship; and, from that date, they received the visitation of a Pastor every alternate Sunday. The congregation increased, and, in 1865, they erected a frame church at Johnston & McKee's Corners. The building is 40x60 feet, and cost $2,500. It was dedicated by S. N. Campbell, February 18, 1866. The present membership is eighty. Rev. D. P. Hartman is the present Pastor. The Church officers are as follows: A. W. Robinson and S. K. Waterson, Stewards; Henry Dice, Israel Hollopeter and S. K. Waterson, Class-Leaders.

Baptist.—The Baptist Church in this township was organized by Elder Wedge, on the 21st day of December, 1844. At the first regular meeting, January 25, 1845, Appleton Rich was chosen Deacon, and John Ross, Clerk. On the 16th day of May, 1846, Rev. A. S. Bingham was chosen Pastor, and stood in that relation until ill health and the infirmities of age compelled his resignation—a period of more than twenty-five years. He died in June, 1876. April 15, 1848, John Ross, Jacob Diffenderfer and Sampson Jackson were elected the first Trustees of the Church, and, three days later, Jacob Diffendarfer, Appleton Rich and John J. Savage were elected as a building committee. In 1850, a frame house of worship was erected near Heller's Corners, and dedicated on the 28th day of September of the same year. The building was 21x30 feet, and cost $600. In 1878, the congregation built a substantial brick edifice, adjacent to the old building. The present church is 38x58 feet, and was built at a cost of $4,400. It was dedicated August 25, 1878, by Rev. Rider. Connected with the Church is a well-organized Sunday school, having more than a hundred scholars enrolled. Charles Lipes is the present Superintendent.

German Baptist.—In 1874, twenty-eight members of this denomination withdrew from the Cedar Creek Church, for the purpose of organizing in Eel River Township. Jeremiah Gump was chosen Pastor, and still serves in that capacity. In 1875, they built a frame church, 36x50 feet, on Section 9, at a cost of $1,500. The number of members at present is fifty. Cyrus Williams, William Rineheld, George Bosler, and Nathan Johnson, Deacons.

Wesleyan Methodist.—The Wesleyan Methodist Church in this township was constituted by those who were formerly attached to the United Brethren Church. The latter denomination organized in 1853, with a class of ten members, and moved harmoniously for a number of years. In 1860, they erected a frame church in the west part of the township, at a cost of $700. Here they held regular services, and their membership increased until 1874; then a number of their members embraced the doctrine of sanctification, but were unable to secure the sympathy or co-operation of their Pastor. The majority of the congregation embraced the doctrine, and the position taken by the pastor caused a disaffection, which grew until the members who held those views withdrew, and organized the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Soon after this, meetings at the United Brethren Church were discontinued, and the organization ceased to exist.

On the 10th day of May, 1878, the Wesleyan Methodists purchased the church building from the Trustees of the old organization, paying them $200. The new organization now has ten members. William Kennedy, Pastor; William McCormick, Class-Leader and Steward.

Church of God.—In February, 1875, a Church of this denomination was organized at Potter's Station, with ten constituent members. Rev. John Parker was the first Pastor; L. Bowman, Elder; Elam Disler, Deacon. In the spring of 1876, they built a house of worship, 40x52 feet, at a cost of $1,360. It was dedicated May 12, 1876, by Rev. Mrs. McCauley, and christened "Ari Chapel." The present number of members is fifteen. Rev. Ober is the present Pastor; Elam Disler, Elder, and L. Bowman, Deacon. Mr. Bowman is also Superintendent of the Sunday school, which has an enrollment of fifty scholars.

CONCLUSION.

This township stands highly as a productive locality, and has a history—civil and military—which will compare favorably with any region of the county, and of which her citizens may justly be proud. Hon. John P. Shoaff was elected Justice of the Peace in 1837, Trustee in 1842, and Representative in the State Legislature in 1862, and was re-elected in 1864 and 1866.

John M. Taylor, a resident of this township, was the successful candidate for Treasurer of Allen County at the last election, and is now serving in that capacity.

During the late war, this township furnished a full quota of soldiers—twice clearing herself from a draft; and at one time, it is said, scarcely a man of military age remained in the township.

MRS. SUSANNAH VALENTINE.

This aged lady, who was one among the very earliest settlers in this county, came here when the country that now is dotted over with churches and schoolhouses, that is traversed in all directions with railroads and turnpikes, and whose surface is covered with splendid farms, was a vast wilderness, inhabited mostly by Indians and wild beasts.

She is a native of the State of Maryland, where she was born on the 4th day of January, 1799. Her maiden name was Susannah Peters.

When she was quite young, her parents removed to what is now Fairfield County, Ohio, and were among the pioneers that first settled in that part of Ohio.

In 1820, she was united in marriage with John Valentine, and they soon after moved on to a tract of wild land that he had purchased, and went to work to make a home for themselves and their children. They remained there until in June, 1833, when they sold their farm and, loading their household goods in a wagon, came to Allen County, to start anew in the struggle for fortune.

He purchased a tract of land in Eel River Township, consisting of 227 acres, and, with stout hearts and willing hands, in a few years had a comfortable home, and were surrounded with the comforts of life.

In 1868, the partner of her youthful days was removed from earth, leaving her to mourn his temporal loss, but in hopes of an eternal re-union hereafter.

Mrs. Valentine is the mother of eleven children; three sons and three daughters are left to comfort her declining years.

She was brought up within the pale of the Lutheran Church; but owing to the fact that there were no facilities for attending the church of that denomination, in 1858, she became affiliated with the Christian or Campbellite Church, of which Church she has since been a consistent member.

Mrs. Valentine is now over eighty years old, but is still hearty and remarkably vigorous for a person of her advanced age.

JACKSON VALENTINE,

son of John and Susannah Valentine, was born October 15, 1824, in Franklin County, Ohio. He was early trained to habits of industry, and he learned his lesson well. His opportunities for acquiring an education when young were limited to the country schools, which at that time had not attained their present standard of excellence, and his education was consequently rudimentary only.

His father was a farmer, owning the farm on which he lived, and which he sold in 1833, and in June of that year took his family and removed to Allen County.

Soon after his arrival, he purchased the tract of land which his son Jackson now owns, consisting of 227 acres of excellent land in Eel River Township, and commenced to clear it of its heavy growth of timber, in order to make a comfortable home. Jackson remained at home, assisting his father in his labors on the farm, until January 6, 1850, when he was united in marriage with Miss Charlotte Greenawalt, of this county.

Their union was blessed with three children, only one of whom (a son) is still living. She departed this life May 18, 1876, deeply mourned by all who knew her.

Soon after their marriage, he purchased a tract of land, consisting of 124 acres, in Lake Township, on which he lived until the latter part of 1859, at which time he purchased the old homestead of his father, and moved on to it, and where he now lives.

It is a splendid farm—160 acres of the land is in a fine state of cultivation, and is very productive. On May 19, 1878, he was married the second time, taking Mrs. Maria Jones, an estimable widow lady, for his partner through the journey of life.

Mr. Valentine has been a member of the Christian, or Campbellite Church, for nearly twenty years. He is a plain, industrious, upright man, and a good citizen.

was born in Botetourt County, Va., July 12, 1811. His father was a well-to-do farmer and his children were trained to habits of industry. Advantages for gaining an education were not as favorable when he was young as they are to-day, but the opportunities he had were well improved.

He remained at home till he was twenty-two years of age, when he purchased a farm and moved on to it. He had been united in marriage, on the 25th of October, 1832, with Miss Margaret N. Thrasher, who was also a native of Botetourt County.

Their wedded life has been blessed with seven children, five of whom (four sons and one daughter) are still living.

They lived and prospered on their farm until the summer of 1850, when they sold their possessions in Virginia, and loaded their household goods and little family into wagons and started for Indiana, arriving in Allen County on the 23d

Marriage Records

Noble County
Indiana

Volume 1

1830 - 1930

Jewell Keller Moen

Ft Wayne In 46811

Preface

Noble County marriages from 1859 to present were transcribed from official records held at the Noble County Courthouse. Records prior to 1859 were obtained elsewhere, and it should be noted there are, in all probability, many marriages prior to 1859 not listed here.

Each bride and groom is listed independently in alphabetical order. The date of marriage (or application date when there was no return recorded) is in the far right groom's column. The Noble County book number where the event was recorded is listed in the bride's column. One asterisk in the bride's column denotes the record was taken from the auditor's returns - no application was recorded. Two asterisks indicate the record was obtained from other sources.

Names of parents were not included in the official records prior to April 15, 1905. These parents' names, therefore, were obtained from sources listed below. It should be noted that in second marriages, the official record usually listed the bride's married surname. Wherever it could be determined, the maiden name was used in this listing. Known recording errors were corrected in this transcription. There are yet several recognized errors; however, the documention required to make corrections could not be located. If a variation in name spelling was detected, the named carved on tombstones was generally used.

Faded copies, illegible handwriting and lack of standardization in spelling made transcription difficult, at best. Although the goal was accurate information, it is recognized good intentions don't always produce the desired effects. Additions and corrections are welcomed. They will be included in future printings.

Sources not exclusive to, but generally used, were the Noble County marriage and probate records, auditor's marriage returns, cemetery records, obituaries, Alvord's History of Noble County, Goodspeed's History of Noble County, History of Northeastern Indiana and federal census records.

Knowing that many errors have been detected and corrected, one can only assume that many remain yet to be found. The user is, therefore, cautioned to make careful analysis of all available records in genealogical research.

Control of rust in the home lawn is best accomplished by fertilizing and irrigating, as needed, to promote grass growth. Do not promote excessive growth. Water infrequently, but deeply. Irrigate during the early part of the day. Irrigate at a time that will permit complete leaf dryness before dew formation. Watering in the evening will increase the length of time that free moisture is on the leaves and will increase the chances of infection. Mow frequently and collect clippings when possible. Several fungicides will aid in the control of rust, but multiple applications are generally required, and you might choose to achieve control via management practices first. You may find products containing chlorothalonil or mancozeb being sold under various trade names at garden supply stores or nurseries.

Garden

Turning your attention to your garden, you say you see a lot of pink, blue, yellow and white flowers. You want some bolder colors because everything seems soft and muted. Which perennials will add a dose of red?

A. Perennials with red color include Astilbe, Epimedium, Helleborus, and Bergenia cultivars, and Dicentra 'Bountiful' for areas with less than full sun. In sunny areas, consider Achillea x"Fanal', some cultivars of Euphorbia, Hibiscus, Monarda, and Sedum, and a good number of daylilies and peonies.

Consider adding hot pink and burgundy to the garden, as well. Many "red" perennials are actually merely in the red family and might be called hot pink, magenta or burgundy, which may work in your favor. Burgundy looks terrific with pale pinks but true red can clash. These variants of red may complement the existing colors in your landscape, while adding a real punch of vibrant color.

Perennials are wonderful but typically bloom for only October. So can colored foliage. Burgundy foliage, found in Heuchera cultivars, Japanese maples and more, can give depth and contrast to nearby pale colors.

Orchard

Disease Management: Wet conditions result in high disease pressure from apple scab, sooty blotch, summer rots, flyspeck, brown rot of peach, plum and cherry, strawberry leaf spot, grape black rot and the list goes on. Under such conditions sprays need to be applied on a tight schedule as long as wet weather prevails. However, as we move into drier summer months the disease pressure lessens and protectant sprays do not need to be applied on such a tight schedule. BUT, this does NOT mean you can stop applying fungicides altogether OR stretch the interval between sprays to 4 or more weeks. Remember that most fungicides are protectant, not curative, and need to be in place before infection occurs, not after. This means applying fungicides before it rains, not after. By all means, if dry dependable disease control, maintain a regular fungicide spray program up to the preharvest restriction date. (Pecknold)

Black Rot and White Rot: Branches which show bright yellow leaves that eventually turn brown and die are likely candidates for having black rot or white rot cankers. All such yellow "flags" should be pruned out completely several inches below any signs of obvious cankering or discolored wood as soon as they appear. Removing dead wood, mummies and cankers from the trees is critical in the management of these diseases. Current-season prunings should be removed from the orchard or chopped with a flail mower. Prunings piled on the orchard perimeter (let alone within the orchard!!) can serve as important disease sources...both this year and next! Act now to get rid of such sources.

Dieffenbach Family

During the reign of Louis XIV in France and Queen Anne in England, there was a great struggle and much fighting between the two countries in the area of Cologne along the Rhine. The English were trying desperately to keep the French from European domination and world power. At the Battle of Blenheim in 1704, Winston Churchill's ancestor, the first Duke of Marlborough led his troops to victory. Due to the ravages of this war along with the religious persecution of that time, there was a great migration by 1709 of thousands of Germans who left their homes in the lower Rhine valley and travelled up that river to Holland and crossed the channel to London in hopes of being transported to America.

They were given asylum there at St. Catherine's near the Tower of London until they could be sent to the Colony of New York to work in the forests there to obtain tar and pitch, badly needed for the ships of the British Navy. On the lists of these people arriving in England, our ancestor appears thus: June 11, 1709 "Konrad Dieffenbach, cooper, aged 50, Reformed religion — his wife Maria Barbara and three daughters, aged 11, 4, and 1, his mother Anna Dieffenbach, aged 74."

Very shortly, this family gained passage to America where by June 1710 they were on Hutten Island, now Governor's Island, New York. Then on up the Hudson they took part in the tar making project, which eventually failed, and many of the participating families obtained permission to settle on the Queen's lands at Schoharie. From time to time, there was trouble with the Indians and, by 1723 in the spring, thirty-three families moved on into what is now Berks Co., Pa. where they found permanent homes at last.

The Dieffenbachs settled on Tulpehocken Creek near Lebanon Co. From them has descended a long line of skillful and resourceful people. There have been clock makers, cabinet makers, coach-makers and wheelwrights and the famous generations of pipe organ builders. Many churches throughout Berks and Lebanon Counties in Pa. installed these organs, among which were Eplers' Church in Bern Twshp., Salem Church of Bethel, Zoar Lutheran Church, Mt. Zion, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and Hamlin Church in Lebanon County. This craftsmanship was begun in 1776 by John Jacob Dieffenbach, son of Adam Dieffenbach, who was the son of Konrad and Anna Barbara Dieffenbach. It was carried on for several generations. The first organ built by "J J D" has been repaired and restored to perfect condition and may be seen in the Berks Co. Historical Society Museum. Another, which is restored and still in use, is found in Altalaha Lutheran Church, Rehrsburg, Pa.

According to the German Dieffenbach History, the family can be traced back to the year 1066 when the Count Von Dieffenbach rode to the Crusades.

FIRST GENERATION

1. MICHAEL DIEFFENBACH lived in Germany, probably in Wiesloch/Baden as that is where his son was living before he brought his family to America in 1709. Michael's wife's name was Anna.

Children:

*2 i. Johan Conrad Dieffenbach

SECOND GENERATION

2. JOHANN CONRAD DIEFFENBACH (Michael^1) was born in Germany in 1659. He had a son and a daughter by his first wife, who died before 1702. On Christmas Day of that year, he married Barbara Christler, daughter of the late Hans Jacob Christler (from the Bern area of Switzerland). The marriage took place in the Reformed Church in the City of Wiesloch/Baden just a few miles south of Heidelberg, Germany. Conrad with his family and domestics left there for their new life in America on May 15, 1709. Lived first in New York, then Pennsylvania.

Children by first wife:

i. Jacob Dieffenbach

*3 ii. Catharina Margaretta Dieffenbach

Children by second wife, Anna Barbara Christler Dieffenbach:

*4 iii. Maria Elizabeth Dieffenbach

iv. A daughter who evidently died in childhood.

v. Ludwig Dieffenbach, also died before parents sailed for America.

*5 vi. John Adam Dieffenbach

*6 7. Anna Dorothea Dieffenbach

THIRD GENERATION

3. CATHARINA MARGARETTA DIEFFENBACH Johann Conrad^2, Michael^1) was born in Germany in 1698. She came with her family to America; married ----- Riethe (Rithin).

4. MARIA ELIZABETH DIEFFENBACH (Johann Conrad^2, Michael^1) was a child of Conrad and his second wife Anna Barbara. She was born in Wiesloch/Baden, Germany in 1705. Came to America with her parents. In circa 1733, she married Michael Ernst Herner-Kraftherner. By 1738 they migrated to the Northern Neck of Virginia where Michael Ernst's surname seems to have become Harness.

5. JOHN ADAM DIEFFENBACH (Johan Conrad^2, Michael^1), son of Conrad and Anna Barbara Dieffenbach, was born in New York in 1712. On August 13, 1734, he married Maria Sybilla Koebel who died in 1807. John Adam had preceded her in death in 1777. From this couple sprang the generations of pipe organ makers beginning with J.J.D.

Children:

*7 i. John Jacob Dieffenbach

6. ANNA DOROTHEA DIEFFENBACH (Johann Conrad^2, Michael^1) was the daughter of Conrad Dieffenbach and his second wife, Anna Barbara. She was born in Schoharie, New York on July 27, 1714 and baptized on Aug. 1, 1714 by the Rev. Joshua Kocherthal. The sponsors were Jorg Maurer and wife, Dorothea. Later, when her parents had moved to Tulpehochen, Pa., she met and married John Hoch, in the middle 1730's. By him she had ten children. Some years after his death in 1755, she married Jacob Greeninger.

Children surnamed Hoch:
  i. John Hoch
  ii. Barbara Hoch
  iii. Elizabeth Hoch
  iv. Michael Hoch
  v. Christian Hoch
  vi. Nicholas Hoch
  vii. Jacob Hoch
  viii. George Hoch
  ix. Conrad Hoch
  x. An unborn child mentioned in John Hoch's will

[The generations on down from here will be found in the Hoch genealogy in another section of this book.]

FOURTH GENERATION

7. JOHN JACOB DIEFFENBACH (John Adam^{3}, Johann Conrad^{2}, Michael^{1}). Information regarding the history of John Jacob Dieffenbach, first of the famous pipe organ builders, may be obtained from his direct descendant, Mr. Roy Dieffenbach, 218 North Maple St., Elizabethtown, Pa. 17022.

had previously contributed her quota of horses and wagons to equip the unfortunate expedition of Gen. Braddock. As the struggle with the parent country gradually came on, nowhere were stancher patriots found than here. The few loyalists that here and there discovered themselves were too closely watched to become a source of apprehension. The Continental Congress, sitting in Philadelphia, in November, 1774, requested the freeholders of the province to hold an election for representatives to the General Assembly. At this election, held December 15th of the same year, Alexander Martin, Emanuel Carpenter, Anthony Ellmaker, William Smith, Zaccheus Davis, George Rein, and John Brubaker were chosen. In the following year (1775) the committeemen chosen were Gabriel Davis, George Rein, and Jonathan Roland. This Gabriel Davis doubtless came from the Welsh colony at the eastern end of the township; he was an assessor in 1730, and a juryman in 1733; he was evidently a man of ability and influence. In accordance with a recommendation of the Continental Congress, made on May 15, 1776, a provincial conference was held in Philadelphia, composed of delegates from the ten counties into which the State was then divided, and it was resolved to hold a general election for persons who should establish some form of government. For the purposes of this election, Lancaster county was divided into six districts; the fourth division was composed of Salisbury, Brecknock, Caernarvon, Earl, and Cocalico townships, and the poll to be opened in New Holland on July 6, 1776. James McCamant, Gabriel Davis, and Michael Whitman were elected.

The muster-rolls of the nine regiments and battalions furnished by this county for the Revolutionary war show how largely Earl township participated in the struggle for independence. By a resolution of Congress, passed May 25, 1776, an exclusively German regiment was authorized to be raised in Pennsylvania and Maryland,—four companies from each State. The former's quota was filled by July 17th, and an additional company besides. The Earls were represented in its ranks. It was of this regiment that David Diffenderfer was standard-bearer.[1]

The people of Earl were true to the principles that carried them over the sea, and resisted oppression in their new homes with the steady heroism they had manifested in the old. When the tocsin of war again filled the land with its loud alarm in 1812, they grasped their muskets and marched among the foremost to meet the threatened danger. And when in 1846, our country, for the first time in her history, carried on an aggressive war in a foreign land, the Earls sent both men and officers to represent them on the field of combat: the names of Roland and Luther[2] are familiar as household words, and together with those of the older heroes who preceded them and those who came after, will remain green in the hearts of a grateful posterity. And when in later years

[1] David Diffenderffer was the grandson of John Diffenderffer, the first settler in the present Earl township, and the grandfather of the writer. A sketch of his life and services in the Revolution may be found in Rupp's "History of Lancaster County." In addition to the particulars there given, a few other facts may be here mentioned. At the time of his retirement from the army the State was unable to discharge the sum due him for pay as ensign. It was the custom to issue State warrants for these arrearages, and the one issued to him was for £134 2s. 4*d*., dated April 10, 1783. On April 10, 1784, the comptroller-general reported a certain sum of interest due him on his depreciated certificate,—namely, £8 0s. 10*d*. None of these certificates, I believe, were ever paid in money; the State was unable to discharge them in that way. David Diffenderffer got a small piece of land for his, located in Northumberland County, which he afterwards sold for a small sum. On May 1, 1783, he received, without solicitation on his part, a commission as "Lieutenant in the seventh company of foot in the Fourth Battalion in the county of Lancaster." The war being over, and no regular military organization being really necessary at that time, his services as such officer were not of importance or long duration. I believe he was the last of the Revolutionary heroes in the county at the time of his death, in 1847, and as such was widely known.

[2] Brev. Maj. John F. Roland, son of the late Henry Roland, Esq., was born in New Holland, in 1818. He entered the military academy at West Point at the age of fourteen, and graduated from that institution in 1836; his commission as second lieutenant in the Fourth Regiment Artillery bears date of July 1st, in that year; four days afterward he was transferred with the same rank to the Second Regiment of Artillery. He was promoted to a first lieutenancy on July 8, 1838, and made captain on March 3, 1847.

Immediately after leaving West Point, Lieut. Roland accompanied his regiment to Florida, and participated in the Seminole Indian war. He also saw service in the Cherokee nation, and on the Canada frontier during the disturbances there. He was the senior lieutenant of Duncan's famous battery, and sailed from New York with it in 1845 to join Gen. Taylor at Corpus Christi. He took part in the brilliant actions at Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma, and received his brevet as captain for gallant services in those battles, and his major's brevet for the dash and courage he manifested on the hard-fought field of Monterey.

He took part in the siege of Vera Cruz, and there receiving his captaincy, was ordered home to raise his company. Having done so, he returned to the scene of war, and joined Gen. Scott's army in the city of Mexico. After the war his regiment was sent to garrison the Southern Atlantic posts. In consequence of anticipated Indian hostilities he was again sent to Florida. In 1850 he was placed in command of Castle Pinckney, where he died Sept. 28, 1852, at the early age of thirty-five. Maj. Roland was an officer of distinguished merit. His professional reputation was deservedly high, and in his death the country lost a brilliant soldier and an estimable citizen.

Capt. Roland A. Luther was born in New Holland in 1815, where his father, Dr. John Luther, an eminent physician, resided. He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point along with his playmate and kinsman, Maj. Roland, in 1832, and, graduating with him in the class of 1836, was at once commissioned a second lieutenant in the Second Regiment of Artillery. He became first lieutenant in 1838, and was promoted to a captaincy in 1847.

Capt. Luther accompanied his regiment to Florida, and participated in several of the engagements that occurred with the Indians. He also took part in the troubles of the government with the Creeks and Cherokees, and afterwards marched to the northern frontier when a conflict with Great Britain seemed impending. His regiment having been ordered to join the forces of Gen. Taylor, then gathering in Texas, he sailed for Corpus Christi with his company. He distinguished himslf by his gallantry at Palo Alto, where he was so severely wounded as to be compelled to come North. Before he was fully recovered his captain's commission reached him, when he at once recruited a company in New York, and again sailed to join the army of Gen. Scott, then in the city of Mexico.

At the conclusion of the war he was stationed with his company in Charleston harbor on garrison duty. Disease, contracted in his line of service while in Mexico, soon rendered him unable to discharge the active duties of his profession, and his health gradually failing, he died in 1853. He was a skillful soldier, well read in the literature of his profession, besides having a wide acquaintance with literary subjects generally. Both he and his companion-in-arms, noticed above, are buried in the Lutheran burying-ground in New Holland.

hundred and fifty thousand cigars. At present he is manufacturing over fifty thousand per month, and has in his employ at present (July, 1883) twelve persons.

Some of the Prominent Families of Conestoga.—The Miller family originally came from Zurich, Switzerland. The earliest one of the family of which we were able to learn was Jacob Miller. He received a patent for a tract of land in Conestoga township, containing one hundred acres and the usual allowance, from Thomas and Richard Penn, bearing date April 1, 1748.

Jacob had a son named Abraham, to whom he willed the farm, who devised the same to his son John. John, having no sons, devised the farm to his nephew, Amos Miller. At present the farm is owned by David H., the second son of Amos.

Amos Miller was one of the school directors of the township from 1850 to 1854. He died in 1864, leaving the following children: Henry H., married to Barbara Warfel, residing on one of the Postlethwait farms (the one upon which the children of J. Postlethwhait are buried); David H., unmarried, residing on the old homestead; Fanny, married to John Becker, of Lancaster township; and John, unmarried.

Andrew Fehl came from Würtemberg in September, 1749, and first settled in Manor township. He moved into Conestoga township in 1764, and purchased the property that still remains in the Fehl family. He had two sons, Jacob and Andrew. Jacob became the next owner of the farm, and after him his son Jacob, who was the father of Jacob Fehl, Esq., who was a justice of the peace for Conestoga township for over thirty years. This same property is now in possession of George J. Fehl, one of Jacob, Esq.'s, sons, his other sons, Samuel L. and Albert, residing close by the old homestead. It was on this farm that the first Court of General Quarter Sessions was held while owned by John Postlewhait, and has now been in the Fehl family over one hundred and twenty years.

The Warfel family came originally from one of the German states. There were three brothers; two of them settled in Conestoga township, one in the northern and the other in the southern part.

Peter Warfel lived on the farm belonging at present to William Rice, his son, Adam, next owning the same. Adam had several children, of whom John became a member of the Legislature in 1842, prior to which time he held several prominent positions in his native township. He died in 1865, leaving a widow and five sons and three daughters. The sons and one daughter are yet living.

Amos is in Conestoga township. He was one of the auditors of the township for three years, and is at present serving his second term of three years as a school director. Jacob, residing in Millersville. John M., now residing on a farm originally granted by Thomas and Richard Penn to Michael Quickel in 1761, and by him to Rudy Miller in 1763, and by him to Andreas Fehl in 1764, and by him to Jacob Miller in 1772, and by him devised unto his eight children, and in Orphans' Court, held at Lancaster, it was decreed that John Miller have and hold the same, etc., in 1782, and by him sold to Daniel Breneman in 1784, and in the same year sold by him to Henry Lighty, and by him to Daniel Sterneman in 1792. He has held the offices of inspector and judge of elections for three successive years.

In addition to this family, there are other Warfels in the township, prominent among whom are Christian Warfel, who has been school director and auditor a number of years; George W., also a school director; Henry, a very extensive tobacco-raiser and general farmer; George B., farmer; and Valentine, a retired farmer. The Warfel family is not only one of the oldest in the township, but is among its wealthiest and most respected inhabitants.

Casper Hiller was born in Manor township in 1817, and removed to Conestoga township in 1828, since which time he has resided in the latter township. In 1837, one year after the adoption of the common-school system by the township, he began teaching school, and continued until 1849. In the latter year he began a small nursery, growing fruit, shade, and ornamental trees for the accommodation of those wanting them in the immediate neighborhood, and a few years after began growing fruit for profit. In the fall of 1869 he took into partnership with him his son, Peter C., and is yet engaged in the same business on a small scale in connection with a small farm of about thirty-five acres. He was elected a school director in 1852, and re-elected to fill the position until the year 1865. He was a delegate to the Lancaster County conventions for nominations of county officers for many years, but since the adoption of the Crawford County system of nominating officers, has retired from politics. His children are Peter C., John, Emma, and Clara. Peter C. began teaching in 1866, and has been engaged in teaching ever since, with the exception of three years, and is at present one of the justices of the peace for the township; John, a house-carpenter, now employed at the Pequea Iron Company's mine. Both live in Conestoga Centre. Emma and Clara, both married, are residing in Martic township.

Casper Hiller has been prominently connected with the State Horticultural Association of Pennsylvania and the Lancaster County Agricultural and Horticultural Society for many years, and has produced and read many valuable papers on fruit-growing and farm products before these organizations. He has also been a surveyor and conveyancer for the last forty years.

Martin Kendig emigrated from Berne, Switzerland. He had two sons, Martin and Jacob. Martin had three sons and two daughters. John, one of his sons, married Fanny Witmer, and lived in Conestoga town-

On the 5th of October, 1776, the Council of Safety ordered a rearrangement of the three battalions, and on the 25th of the same month ten of the companies of the battalions ceased to exist, by being consolidated with the others. Among those so consolidated were the Lancaster County companies of Capts. Thomas Herbert and Peter Grubb, Jr.[1] The company of Capt. Abraham Dehuff retained its organization in the reorganized command, which then became known as the "State Regiment of Foot." A part of the regiment was present in the action at Fort Washington, November 16th, and fell into the hands of the enemy, with several of its officers, among whom was Capt. Dehuff. The remainder of the regiment remained with Washington's army in the retreat to the Delaware River, and fought in the battles of Trenton and Princeton. Afterwards it moved to Philadelphia, and remained there till March, 1777, when it was moved to the works at Billingsport, N. J.

On the 8th of May, John Bull, Esq., was appointed colonel of the regiment, but he was promoted to adjutant-general on the 17th of June, and Walter Stewart succeeded him as colonel. The regiment was transferred to the Continental service, and took part in the battles of Brandywine and Germantown. By a resolution of Congress, Nov. 12, 1777, it became the Thirteenth Pennsylvania Regiment of the Continental Line, which, in turn, was consolidated (July 1, 1778) into the Second, the Thirteenth having become reduced in strength by the expirations of the terms of original enlistments in Miles' and Atlee's battalions.

The "German Regiment" contained one company from Lancaster County. This regiment was raised under a resolution of Congress, passed June 27, 1776, "That four companies of Germans be raised in Pennsylvania and four Companies in Maryland to compose the German Battalion. . . . That the said Companies be inlisted to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged, and Receive Bounty, pay, rations, and all other allowances equal to any of the Continental Troops. . . . That five thousand Dollars be sent to the Committee of Safety of Pennsylvania & 5000 Dollars to the Convention, or in their Recess, to the Committee of Safety of Maryland to defray the expence of Raising the German Companies."

The Lancaster County company of the "German Regiment" was commanded by Capt. George Hubley, of Lancaster, and afterwards by Capt. Bernard Hubley. The adjutant of the regiment was Lieut. John Weidman. David Dieffenderfer, of Lancaster, was one of the ensigns.

The regiment took the field in 1776, and took part in the battles of Trenton and Princeton. It afterwards fought at Brandywine and Monmouth. After the last-named battle the colonel, Nicholas Haussegger, deserted to the enemy, and Lieut.-Col. Ludwig Weltner succeeded to the command. In 1779 the regiment took part in Gen. Sullivan's campaign against the Indians, and in the following year was stationed on the frontier of Northumberland County. By a resolution of Congress in October, 1780, the "German Regiment" was reduced, and its organization ended on the 1st of January, 1781. None of the rolls of the companies of this regiment are known to be in existence.

An independent company, raised in Lancaster County for the purpose of guarding the prisoners of war confined at Lancaster (as will be more fully mentioned hereafter), was commanded by Capt. Jacob Weaver, of Lancaster, who afterwards served with his company in the Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment of the Continental Line, in which there were also considerable numbers of Lancaster County men in the companies of Capts. Jacob Stake and Thomas Herbert of Lancaster County, previously captain in Atlee's battalion. Among the other line-officers were the following of Lancaster County: Capt. John Steele,[2] Lieuts. John Hambright, William Feltman (paymaster), Edward Cowan, and Henry Small (quartermaster); Ensign, Samuel Boude. The second lieutenant-colonel of the Tenth was Adam Hubley, Jr., of Lancaster, previously a line-officer in the First Battalion, and major of one of the additional regiments, and thence transferred to the Tenth. He afterwards became lieutenant-colonel commandant of the "New Eleventh," as before mentioned.

The Tenth was raised in the fall of 1776, under authority of a resolution of Congress, dated September 16th in that year. The line-officers were nearly all commissioned on the 4th of December following. The regiment took the field immediately, and fought in the battles of Princeton, Bound Brook, N. J. (April 13, 1777), Brandywine, Germantown, Paoli, and in several of the later battles of the war. Following is given a "Return of Men Recruited for the service of the United States of America by Capt. Jacob Weaver, of Col. Richard Humpton's Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment from the State of Pennsylvania in 1778," viz.:

One of the companies in the Twelfth Pennsylvania (Continental) Regiment was commanded by Capt. Stephen Chambers,[1] of Lancaster. Another Lancaster County officer in the Twelfth was Lieut. Stewart Herbert,[2] who recruited part of a company in Salisbury and adjoining townships. No rolls of this or other companies can be given. The regiment was raised in the fall of 1776. In December it moved to join Washington's army on the Delaware. In 1777 it took part in various actions and skirmishes in New Jersey, and fought at Brandywine and Germantown, losing heavily. In June, 1778, it fought at Monmouth, sustaining such severe losses that the remnant was incorporated with the Third Regiment in the following July.

At the close of the year 1776, when Gen. Washington retreated from the Hudson to the right bank of the Delaware River, closely pursued by the victorious columns of Lord Cornwallis, it was the general belief that the British forces would proceed down the Delaware and occupy Philadelphia. This caused great alarm in the city, and Congress and the Council of Safety made preparations to remove at shortest notice. On the 8th of December, at a meeting of the last-named body, "a letter was laid before the Board from Col. Bayard to Mr. Andrew Hodge, dated at Trenton, two o'clock yesterday afternoon, informing that Gen. Howe was advancing at the Head of his Army towards Head Quarters at Princetown. . . . Letters were dispatched to the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the several Battalions of Militia in this State, informing them of the movements of the Enemy, and entreats them to march with their Battalions to succour Gen. Washington, and empowering them to impress waggons to assist the Inhabitants of the Country to remove their effects, if not to be had without."

On the 9th of December the Council "Resolved, That our Treasury and the Books of that office be removed to Lancaster, & that a waggon be provided to-morrow morning early for that purpose. That Mr. Robert Erwine provide John M. Nesbitt, Esqr., with the first waggon that comes in, for the Service of the State." On the 13th the Council "Resolved, That Col. John Bull be empowered to employ a number of Waggons to remove the Powder and other Military Stores from the New Powder Mills at French Creek and Norrington towards Lancaster, there to remain until further orders, under the care of such persons as he shall appoint to Guard the same." Soon afterwards the Lancaster County battalion, under Col. Matthias Slough, and Capt. Mercer's company of Col. Ross' battalion, were ordered to march immediately to Philadelphia.

The victories of Gen. Washington at Trenton and Princeton, and the consequent retirement of the British forces to New Brunswick and the vicinity of New York, had the effect to quiet the alarm which had been felt for the safety of Philadelphia. Congress and the Council of Safety continued their sessions in the city, and the orders for the militia to rendezvous there for its defense were countermanded. Again, in June, 1777, it was believed that the army of Gen. Howe was about to move on Philadelphia by way of the Delaware Bay and River. On the 10th of that

THE FORT WAYNE JOURNAL-GAZETTE, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 20, 1908

BEWARE PNEUMONIA

According to mortality statistics, pneumonia is one of the most frequent and fatal diseases to which humanity is subject. Its action is so rapid that its victim is often in a precarious condition before realizing that anything more serious is the matter than a severe cold.

This is one of the dangers that may follow neglect of a cough or cold, and is therefore the best of reasons why one should check a cold at the start. A simple, inexpensive and effective remedy, that will usually break a cold overnight, is the mixture of one half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, with two ounces of Glycerine and a half pint of good Whisky. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. It is claimed this mixture will cure any cough that is curable, and provides a sufficient quantity to last the average family an entire year. Get the ingredients separately and mix them yourself.

In preparing this formula it is essential to use only the best quality of Glycerine and Whisky with the Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure. The latter preparation is a combination of the active principles of the Pine and Santalwood trees, carefully compounded to retain the healing, health-giving properties for which these trees are justly famous. In order to insure its purity and freshness it is securely sealed in a round wooden case. The genuine Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure is prepared only in the laboratories of the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O.

People Will Not Stand for "My Policies," as the Conditions Have Been Fearful with No Show of Relief — Majority 40, 000.

One of the most prominent bankers and manufacturers in the state of Ohio was in the city yesterday on business and while here expressed himself emphatically that the state of Ohio is irrevocably lost to the republican party through the reaction which has come on account of the "my policies" regime of Theodore Roosevelt and the "me too" policies of Candidate William H. Taft.

"The state of Ohio is going democratic by a large majority," said the speaker, "and it appears to me to be beyond the power of the republican managers to save it at this late day. There are a number of causes for my belief, and I have traveled all over the state recently," he continued, "but chiefly among them is the 'my policies' attitude of the president and the 'me too' policies of Candidate Bill. The people know what has happened to them at the will of the 'prosperity' party, which is now calling on them to return to prosperity, but the people know—particularly the business and manufacturing class—which party is to blame for such a state of affairs, and they have made up their minds that a change is necessary. Under such circumstances the result without a doubt will be a victory for the democratic party. In connection with this I do not even mention the discontent over the Foraker affair or the discontent of the laboring man on the

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the lord forever.

c. Arletta Virginia, born March 17, 1917.

8. Mary Lavine Diefenderfer, 6th generation, born March 10, 1888.

The above genealogy and historical data were gathered and compiled from various sources by Miss Nita Cornell, daughter of Arthur and Nora Cornell, and Miss Mary Diefenderfer, daughter of S. Harrison. The original document was typed and some additions made to the original after conferences with S. Harrison by Rev. W. M. Diefenderfer, Sharon, Pa. The latter feels like paying an unsought tribute to Mr. S. Harrison Diefenderfer, who is at present living retired at Transfer, Pa. First, for the remarkable clarity of mind and memory of the said S. Harrison. At the age of nearly 93 years he still has the most part of the data of this historical record clearly in his mind and can name the names and dates of various branches of the family in a way that is uncanny. It shows that he has given a great deal of study and thought to the matter of his family history. Without his knowledge the larger part of this genealogical record would have been impossible. Then too I would pay tribute to the character of this nester of the family. For many years he has lived in this community and in such a way that every one with whom we have talked about S. Harrison has involuntarily said, "He is a grand old man." His integrity is above reproach; his honesty unquestioned; his disposition genial and kind to man and child alike; for years a pillar in the church; successful as a farmer and businessman; his counsel in these matters sought after; a man well read; a highly cultured Christian gentleman in every sense of the word. May he be spared for many years to come.--Rev. W. M. Diefenderfer

Solomon Diefenderfer 4th generation in America, and Nancy Arner Diefenderfer of Macungie Township, Lehigh Co. Pa., were the progenitors of this branch. Their marriage certificate shows that Solomon Diefenderfer from Macungie Township, Lehigh Co., Pa., and Nancy Arner also from Macungie Township were united in marriage on Oct. 30, 1820 by the Rev. Benjamin Garman. The parents of the above couple were Henry Diefenderfer and Susan Jarrett Diefenderfer. And those of Nancy Arner Diefenderfer were John Arner and Katherine Scherrig Arner. Solomon Diefenderfer was born in Macungie Township, Lehigh Co., Pa., Sept. 9, 1801. Nancy Arner Diefenderfer was born in Millerstown, now called Macungie, Lehigh Co., Pa., on July 18, 1801. The following were the children on Solomon and Nancy Diefenderfer. These constitute the fifth generation of the Diefenderfer family. All of the above children were born in Macungie Township, Lehigh Co., Pa.

Solomon Diefenderfer with his wife and children, except George Washington, deceased, and Carolina, who had preceded him to Mercer Co. by a couple of years, started from Lehigh Co. at noon April 28, 1850, crossed the snow covered Allegheny mountains and arrived near Greenville, Mercer Co., Pa. on the evening of May 15 at the home of his brother Jacob, who resided at Big Run. Later he and his family settled south of Greenville for the summer. They made the journey across the state in two covered wagon. One a two horse wagon driven by John and the other a one horse wagon driven by S. Harrison. Starting with plenty of baked goods to furnish their breakfasts and noon lunches from the wagons, they ate their suppers in hotels along the route. The women and Solomon slept in the hotels while the three oldest boys and the dog spent the nights in the wagons. By the time they reached Pittsburgh the baked provisions had all been consumed and they bought a new supply to provide for the remainder of their journey. All the children, except the smallest ones, walked by the wagons, as the wagons were heavily loaded with household goods. It was found necessary when arriving at Harrisburg, to ship a 500 pound box by railway to Pittsburgh and from there to Greenville by canal, because the wagons were so heavily loaded.

The route from Lehigh to Mercer Co. was not entirely new to Solomon Diefenderfer as on two previous occasions he and a friend walked to Mercer Co. to visit his brothers and both times he purchased a horse and would ride part of the way on his return to Lehigh Co.

In the fall of 1850 Solomon and his family moved to a farm about two miles east of Clarksville, on the north side of the Shenango River. Here they resided five and a half years, when they built a new home in 1856 about a half a mile east of Rickert Church. They lived in this new home until 1859 when they again built a new home. This time about half a mile east of Transfer, where they resided until their deaths. Solomon Diefenderfer died March 25, 1884, his wife Nancy Arner having preceded him in death on Oct. 11, 1880.

1. Lavina Diefenderfer married Joseph Kamerer, a shoemaker and farmer, and they had one daughter, Mary, and twins, Charles and Franklin, the latter deceased. They lived in Mercer Co., Pa.

2. George Washington Diefenderfer, a carpenter, married Chrissie Fatsinger. They had one daughter and lived in Lehigh Co., Pa. He died Oct. 20, 1849, aged 26 years, 7 mo., and 1 day. He broken.

Henry Diefenderfer, the third son of Godfrey, was born Feb. 3, 1764 and died Nov. 24, 1846. He was a farmer in Macungie Township, Lehigh Co., Pa., where he married Susan Jarrett, who was born June 17, 1766 and died July 24, 1851. They had a family of 15 children of whom 4 died young. The 11 children who survived were:

They moved to Mercer Co, in 1854 and had the following children: William, Anna, Tilman, who was the father of the dentist Victor Diefenderfer, who practiced in New Castle, Pa., where he died in 1927. Also Maria, George, Sally, James, Eli, Jeremiah, and Sylvester.

Myer, Bowman, Eberlee, Zug, Schultze, Funk, Frantz, and others. The two brothers Alexander and John Michael, sailed from Rotterdam in the ship William and Sarah, of which William Hill was the master, in the company with 90 Palatine families (about 40 persons), and as said above arrived at Philadelphia, Pa. The ship William and Sarah was the first recorded archive of the state.

The Lancaster Diefenderfers

John Michael, one of the two brothers who came over in the William and Sarah, settled in or near New Holland, Lancaster Co., Pa., where he died on Nov. 12, 1778. They had five sons: Michael, John, Jacob, George, and Adam. Michael, the eldest, was born near Heidelberg, Germany on Nov. 4, 1721 and died at Lancaster, Pa. on Sept. 3, 1789. The descendants of these sons reside in Lancaster Co., Pa. and some in the western part of the state. They spell their name Diffenderfer for the most part.

The Bucks Co. and Lehigh Co. Diefenderfers

Alexander Diefenderfer, who accompanied his brother John Michael to America, received a warrant for 150 acres of land, located in what was then Bucks Co., the Northwest part, lying partly in Bucks and partly in Lehigh Co. This warrant was received on June 1, 1734. This tract was located east of the Berks Co. line, near the present village of Kraussdale. In the Journals of the Proprietary Land Office is this entry concerning the above land, "Dec. 4, 1739, Rec'd of Alexander Diefenderfer, in part, for land in Milford Township, Lbs. 8.00."

Alexander Diefenderfer was naturalized in Sept. 1740. He continued to farm his tract of land and became a prominent citizen in the community. He was a member of the Great Swamp Reformed congregation, and when he died on Nov. 20, 1768, he was buried in the cemetery of the church. His widow, Gertrude, whose maiden name the writer does not know at present, died in 1789, in Macungie Township, Lehigh Co. This family had five children; Anna Margaret, Godfrey, Gertrude, Alexander and John.

Second Generation of Lehigh Co, Diefenderfers

(Taking up Godfrey only--progenitor of our branch)

Godfrey Diefenderfer, the eldest son of Alexander Diefenderfer and the ancestor of the greater part of the family in Lehigh Co., was born Feb. 19, 1730. He was conformed a member of the Great Swamp Reformed Church, and about 1750, settled in Macungie Township where he secured a tract of 100 acres, by warrant of Aug. 22, 1754, and later added to the holdings until he had over 200 acres. He and his sons, John and Jacob, were enrolled as privates in Captain Greenmeyer's Company of the First Battalion of Northampton Co. Militia, which Battalion was commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Stephen Balliet in 1781 and 1782 in the Revolutionary War. He was one of the founders and an elder of the Reformed Congregation at Trexlertown, Lehigh Co., Pa. in 1784. He died April 16, 1806 and was buried at Trexlertown. His grave is near that of his wife. On May 3, 1753 he married Anna Margaret Mattern, who was born Oct. 6, 1727 and died April 6, 1801. She was the daughter of Peter Mattern and his wife Catherine, the latter of whom died Sept. 10, 1758, aged 56 years. Godfrey Diefenderfer and his wife, Anna Mattern had seven children; John, Gertrude, Jacob, Margaret, Henry, Anna Elizabeth, and Philip.

It is the opinion of S. Harrison Diefenderfer, Transfer, Mercer Co., Pa., who in his youth was acquainted with the Lehigh Co. family, and who at this writing in nearly 93 years old, that the Diefenderfers living in the neighborhood of East Texas, Lehigh Co., Pa. are descendants of this family.

Third Generation of the Lehigh Co. Family

(Jacob and Henry only--the latter our progenitor.)

Jacob Diefenderfer, second son of Godfrey, was born June 26, 1759, one of twins, his twin sister, Margaret, not surviving long. He lived in Macungie Township, Lehigh Co., Pa., where he and his wife, Anna Maria, had these children; Elizabeth, born May 10, 1785; Gottfried, born Aug. 4, 1787; John Philip, born Sept. 29, 1790;

THE HISTORY OF THE DIEFENDERFER FAMILY

The derivation of the family name:

The names of families that have existed since the middle ages invariably find their origin from something which lies without the family, such as the names of the towns, valleys, mountains, or rivers, etc. in which they lived. Some families took their name from the occupation, or characteristics of the progenitors of the families. Others in their present day forms are translations of the name in to the language of the land in which they live. In the age of the Renaissance it was customary for the learned and even of those who did not boast of being learned to translate their name into either the Latin or the Greek. In this present day some families in America are changing their family names from the name they bore in the land of their birth to some equivalent English name or in some instances to altogether new names which have no connection or relation to their former names.

There have been various explanations of the origin of the name of the Diefenderfer family. One is that the members of this family were called Die von den Doerfer, by the people who lived about the villages in which they lived. Dorf is e German word for village, so that Die von den Doerfer in its literal translation would be, "Those from the villages". Those in the city or the outlying districts may have called the folks who lived in the villages of a certain district by that name. This is a possible derivation of our family name but not a very probable one.

The Diefenderfer family derives its name from the village of Dubendorf, situated on the left side of the Glatt river, between Fellanden and Schwamendingen, belonging to the jurisdiction of the city of Zurich, in Switzerland.

According to the earliest records available the name of our family was originally Dubeldorf, used with the variations of Toubilindorf and Tobelndorf. In ancient times this family possessed a nobility of its own, and are mentioned by Burkhard and Gerlo (probably Gerlach) in a document concerning the cloister at Fahr, in the year 1130. In the year 1195, Verner Von Tubelndorf was a witness to a deed at the convent of Seldnan (or Seldnau), and there is still another record showing that in 1229 Cuno Von Deubendorf, Knight, witnessed a deed at the cloister of Zurichberg. In 1274 Conrad Von Dubendorf was a member of the Knight Council in the city of Zurich.

The natural source for the ancient records of our family would be the church records of the church at Dubendorf. This church at Dubendorf is mentioned as early as 1420. It was enlarged in 1682 and was damaged by fire on Sept. 6, 1690, when the school house in connection with the church was destroyed. It was rebuilt and considerably enlarged in 1734, 1754, and in 1763. The records of this church prior to 1690 were destroyed in the fire of that year and so there are no records of the Diefenderfer family in this church of our ancient home, at least none prior to 1960. Dubeldorf was located six miles northeast of the city of Zurich, so that records of a minor nature are found there and in other ecclesiastical and secular institutions lying about the village of Dubeldorf. But so far as births and deaths are concerned, there is very little recorded prior to 1690.

The Family in Germany

John Dubendorffer, (note that by this time the family had added "fer" to the Dubendorff), who was a descendant of the family above described, and who was born Oct. 8, 1663, emigrated from Switzerland to Germany. Just when he emigrated we do not know. But he settled at Nersheim, in Churpfalzichen, near Heidelberg. Here his sons, John Michael and Alexander were born. John Michael was born Jan. 10, 1695 and in 1721, Jan. 21, he married Barbara Hasen. We do not know the exact date of the birth of Alexander but it was no doubt somewhere between 1690 and 1700.

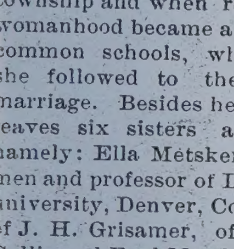
letter news. The Columbia City Post says: Grace Metsker was the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Metsker, well known residents of Smith township for many years. The father was the first to die and break the family circle, composed of father, nother and eight children. His death occurred in August 1907, and soon afterward the old home was broken up. About sixteen years ago this daughter and Mr. Samuel H. Nickey, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Nickey, now of Memphis, Tenn, but formerly of this county were united in marriage and to them one child was born, now a girl of fifteen years. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nickey made their home at Princeton, this state, for several years, but about five years ago weakness of the lungs forced Mrs. Nickey to seek a higher altitude and much of the time since then has been spent in Denver by her. Her husband divided his time between that point and his lumber interests in this state and elsewhere. The change of residence did her good but it did not put a stop to the progress of the disease which eventually brought about her death, which occured Thursday evening at 9 o'clock

The deceased was about 39 years of ge and was a woman of refinement nd culture. She was born in Smith ownship and when reaching young womanhood became a teacher in the common schools, which avocation she followed to the time of her narriage. Besides her mother, she eaves six sisters and a brother, namely: Ella Metsker, dean of women and professor of Latin in Denver niversity, Denver, Colo.; Rose, wife of J. H. Grisamer, of Ft. Wayne; Callie and Fred Metsker, of Bay City Texas; Gertrude, wife of Rev. H. S. Lawrence. of Springfield, Ohio; Catherine, wife of Attorney H. P. Barry, of Beaumont, Tex., and Lois Metsker, a teacher in the public schools at Delphi, Ind.

The funeral was held at Ft. Wayne uesday her remains being brought o that city from Denver after which er tired body was laid to rest in the eautiful cemetery at Eel River. A umber of her Churubusco friends vere in attendance.



A SILVER WEDDING

A number of relatives and friends were invited to the home of Mr and Mrs David L Pence, Saturday, Nov. 23rd to help celebrate their silver wedding.

The beautiful day, pleasant home, sumptuous dinner and congenial association with friends, made the day one long to be remembered, by those who were fortunate enough to be present.

There are not very many who have led as active a life and worked as hard, that are as well preserved as this esteemed couple. Father Time has dealt very kindly with them; and while a few white hairs are peeping from among the brown, they do not look much older than five and twenty years ago, when they plighted their marriage vows.

There were numerous pieces of silver given which will remind them, for years to come, of this pleasant gathering. Beside the family there were Mr. and Mrs A. A. Demoney, father and mother of Mrs Pence, and who celebrated their golden wedding in 1906, E W Demoney and wife, J E Sible and wife and Mrs Knight. Those present from Col City were: Mrs M J Halenbeck mother of Mrs. Pence, Mr and Mrs Frank McClain, Mrs E A Barney, Clarence and Mary Barney, Neva and Marie Galbreath and Rheua Nickey. J W Holenbeck and wife of Coessa, Mrs A Henry and son, Mrs Don Marlow and daughter, of Mansfield, Ohio, and J H Donaldson of Greenwich Ohio.

Mr and Mrs Pence and family are among Smith townships most highly respected citizens. He is an "up to date" farmer, as his farm, crops, stock and surroundings show. Mrs. Pence—well—few can excell as housekeeper, cook, mother or in fact any duties which a farmers' wife is expected to perform Their son Orval and daughter Estella graduated from the Columbia City high school and are now teaching in Whitley county; the younger son Benj will graduate from the same institution this year.

The guest departed at a late hour, after wishing Mr and Mrs Pence many happy anniversaries and that all may be permitted to help them celebrate again in 1932.

WARNING TO HUNTERS

Mrs. Geo. McCoy who has been at the Hope Hospital for the past two weeks where she underwent an operation for gall stones was brought home Sunday evening. Although much improved she is yet unable to leave her bed.

Wm Shambaugh, Mrs. Isaac Shambaugh, and Mrs. Lewis Summers one daughter having preceded her when eleven years old.

She was united in marriage to Henry Shambaugh near Perrysville, Ohio, September 23, 1852, where they resided two years; thence moved to Wisconsin where they resided about nine years, when her husband enlisted in the war. She with her children removed to Ohio and in 1874 the family moved to Indiana near Green Center in Noble County where she spent her last days her husband having preceded her ten years. They united with the Lutheran Church about 35 years ago. She has always lived a consistent christian and was a mother to all who came in her presence. We need not mourn as for one that had no hope.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Page of the Christian church, after which she was laid beside her husband in the Rehobeth Cemetery.

Mrs. Margaret Shambaugh, widow of Henry Shambaugh died last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lewis Summers near Green Center after suffering for years from cancer of the heart. She was 75 years 3 months and 21 days of age. She leaves four children as follows: Mrs. Lewis Summers and Mrs. Alfred Geiger of Noble County, Mrs. Nancy Shambaugh of Avilla and Will Shambaugh of Kendallville. The funeral occured last Wednesday at the residence, Rev. R. M. Paige officiating. Interiment at Rehoboth cemetery.

A FITTING TRIBUTE TO NOTED CITIZEN.

Lemuel Richey is gone! Died Saturday evening at his residence in this city after a lingering illness of several months. Who can tell of the sorrow following in their trail? A husband taken, a prominent citizen removed from amongst us, a neighbor less and a new made mound in our little cemetery. This briefly tells the tale.

The deceased was born January 11, 1842, in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania, and was 64 years, 5 months and 12 days of age. He was one of seven children of whom four survive: Henry Richey, of Smith township; Charles Richey, of Washington state; Mrs. Henry Pressler, of Albion and Mrs. James Tripconey, of Thorncreek township.

The deceased came to Smith township with his parents when but four years old and grew to manhood there. In the fall of 1862, he enlisted as a private in Co. D, 129th Regiment and the next spring was sent to the front, where he participated in the battles of Resaca, Buzzards Roost, Kenesaw Mountain, Siege of Atlanta, Jonesboro, Franklin and Nashville, later being transferred to the Eastern army, 23rd Corps. On October 23, 1863, he was commissioned Second Lieutenant and Captain of Company D, in August 1865, receiving an honorable discharge at Charlotte, North Carolina, in September 1865. He returned home and engaged in farming and railroading, finally entering the hardware business at Churubusco in 1876, which he continued until a few years before his death. He was united in marriage to Miss Lavina Pence in 1869, but no children were born to them. She still survives. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and Masonic lodges, a staunch republican and a consistent member of the M. E. church.

As a business man Mr. Richey stood for absolute integrity. Nothing that tainted of trickery but aroused his most strenuous opposition instantly. His council on the important affairs of life was much sought by his associates, was freely given and highly respected. Churubusco as a city, and its citizens will miss him. He is no more, but his memory will remain as a stimulus to those who are left. In his death the family circle has been broken; a wife weeps for a devoted husband and over all our people is cast a pall of gloom, for they know their friend is dead.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral of Lemuel Richey was held at his late residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Miller of the M. E. church officiating. His casket was covered with beautiful flowers, while all around the bier were the same tokens of love and esteem from the hands of his family and friends. The services were in charge of the Churubusco Masonic order.

Mabel, the four months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Diffendafer, died at their home in Green township Sunday morning at 3:30 a. m. at the age of 4 month and 2 days. The funeral was held Tuesday at 11 a. m. at Honeywell church.

Thursday morning of last week occured the death of Mrs. James Leitch. The funeral was held Friday at the Hopewell church. The deceased leaves a husband and seven children, the oldest a son 17 years of age. The community extends sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of trouble.

Last Tuesday evening occurred the death of Levi Stabl, after but a brief illness. He was one of our pioneer settlers and an excellent citizen. His funeral was preached Thursday at the Christian Chapel by Rev. Thomas of Churubusco. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the writer.

KILLED HIMSELF.

Andrew Richard, of Green Township Suddenly Ends His Life.

Word was received in this city early Monday morning that Andrew Richards who resides north-west of Churubusco in Green township had ended his life. A TRUTH representative upon investigation found same to be true. For several years he has suffered and worried over a cancer and during the past week has been of a remorse disposition. Monday morning after eating breakfast he walked to the summer kitchen and grabbing a shot gun emptied the contents into his body, the charge going through his heart causing instant death.

He had been the victim of that dreaded disease, cancer, for over two years. It affected him in his throat and had gradually eaten through until it began destroying his cheek and face, making life unbearable. He had tried every remedy without securing any relief and when unable to longer endure his terrible suffering, decided to end his life.

Mr. Andrew Richards was born in Licking county, Ohio, July 10, 1842 and was aged at the time of his death 63 years, 11 months and 15 days. He came to this country when a young man and was a hard working, industrious man and by his honesty and integrity of purpose won the esteem of his fellow men. He was simple in his habits, but a man of character and passes from this earth with a spotless record, his life being an example worthy of imitation.

The funeral was held at the Christian Chapel church at Merriam Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and was very largely attended. Several beautiful floral tributes were noticeable, having been sent as tokens of sympathy by loving friends who feel that they have indeed lost a true friend. Besides his wife he leaves one son, John, who resides near Columbia City, and two daughters, Mrs. George Nickademus, of Smith township and Mrs. Ella Wilson, of Mentone.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

PENCE-CROW.

The wedding of Mr. Evain Pence to Miss Besse Hellen Crow took place at the home of Rev. R. M. Paige at Merriam Saturday evening.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Pence and is a popular young man, honest and industrous. He is a geneial gentleman and has a host of friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Crow of Line Street and is a sweet little lady, with loveable disposition, whose presence brings sunshine wherever she goes. For the past four years she has been an operator for the Geiger Telephone Co., of this city and by her sunny temperament and winsome disposition she endeared her self to a large number of friends. The happy couple will move immediately to the Pence farm north of Churubusco where they will be "at home" to their many friends.

THE TRUTH joins in extending congratulations and in wishing that their voyage over life's uncertain sea may be attended by happiness, prosperity and sunshine.

GUMMOW-RAPP

Mr. Albert Gummow, of Logansport and Miss Viola Rapp of this city were quietly married Saturday at Columbia City by Rev. L. L. Shaffer at the U. B. parsonage.

The groom is a city electrician at Logansport and is said to be an honorable and bright young man. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Sarah Rapp of this city and is a charming little lady who has a host of friends who join THE TRUTH in wishing for them only the very best of it. They will reside at Logansport.

JAMES B. GRAWCOCK IN ACCIDENT.

While returning from the funeral of V. A. Geiger Sunday afternoon James B. Grawcock's horse became frightened at John Jeffries' automobile and dashed into the fence. Mr. Grawcock who was driving was thrown from the buggy, striking a log near by. The accident caused a bad contusion and laceration of the thigh, but no bones were broken. Chas. Slagle who was with him escaped injury. Dr. J. F. Criswell is in attendance and states that while Mr. Grawcock was badly bruised up he miraculously escaped serious injuries.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends in Churubusco and vicinity who so kindly remembered us during our sad hours of bereavement. Also for the many handsome floral offerings sent during the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother.

VAL BROWN AND CHILDREN.

REV. LE COUNT MOVES TO LAGRO CHARGE

Rev. LeCount, pastor of the U. B. church in this city resigned suddenly last week and moved his household goods to Lagro, Ind., where he will assume charge of the Presbyterian church at that place.

In explanation of the removal Rev. LeCount told The Truth man that he had no differences with the local church and that he was making the move because he thought it best and for other reasons he did not care to discuss. The official board were reluctant to see him go, and tried to persuade him to change his mind but without avail.

He is a very capable minister and The Truth takes pleasure in commending him and his excellent family to the people of Lagro.

No minister has been selected as yet for the local charge, and while several are under consideration, the board expects to take plenty of time to dispose of the question and do not expect to make a decision before spring.

The new building will be erected as originally planned, and the resignation of Rev. LeCount will not affect the project. The present building that was advertised for sale, is withdrawn from the market and will not be offered again as they expect to use it in connection with the new building.

DIVORCED AND MARRIED.

Harry L. Gandy a 'Busco boy and Frances Keiser were married at Rapid City, S. Dakota Oct. 30th. He formerly lived at Lagrange where he conducted a newspaper, owned by his father, W. S. Gandy of this city, where Miss Keiser was in his employ. He recently secured a divorce from his first wife, who with the two little children are still living at Lagrange.

MRS. SAM NICKEY DEAD.

Mrs. Grace (Metsker) Nickey who has been ill for a long time died Thursday evening at her home in Denver, Colorado from tuberculosis.

Mrs. Nickey was born and raised in Smith township and her death brought more than ordinary grief to Churubusco, for since the news came that her life lay in the balance, her friends in this vicinity still hoped for better news. The Columbia City Post says: Grace Metsker was the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Metsker, well known residents of Smith township for many years. MASTER ARLO DAVIS WINS.

The baby show at the Family Theatre closed Tuesday evening last and was a complete success in every respect. More than twenty babies were entered and their pictures thrown upon the screen before each evenings entertainment. The pictures were taken by Photographer Clase and printed on transparent films in a way that they could be displayed upon the big screne just the same as the regular moving pictures.

With each paid admission a ticket, good for one vote, was given and these were placed in the ballot box near the door at the close of each show. Each baby's picture was numbered and the votes were cast by number.

The attendance was unusually large and many votes were added to the list each night. There was considerable uncertainty up to the last moment however as to what the ultimate result would be, and although several babies seemed to have a promising lead, there was much guessing as to which would gain the final plurality.

The number of votes cast during the last evening was very large and when the final count was made it was found that by a decisive plurality of 243 the gold necklace, which was the premium offered by manager Taylor for the winner, belonged to the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of South Main Street and their many friends congratulate them upon the cunning attractiveness of their little son as decided by such a test.

A SILVER WEDDING

A number of relatives and friends were invited to the home of Mr and Mrs David L Pence, Saturday, Nov. 23rd to help celebrate their silver wedding.

The beautiful day, pleasant home, sumptuous dinner and congenial association with friends, made the day one long to be remembered, by those who were fortunate enough to be present.

There are not very many who have led as active a life and worked as hard, that are as well preserved as this esteemed couple. Father Time has dealt very kindly with them; and while a few white hairs are peeping from among the brown, they do not look much older than five and twenty years ago, when they plighted their marriage vows.

There were numerous pieces of silver given which will remind them, for years to come, of this pleasant gathering. Beside the family there were Mr. and Mrs A. A. Demoney, father and mother of Mrs Pence, and who celebrated their golden wedding in 1906, E W Demoney and wife, J E Sible and wife and Mrs Knight. Those present from Col City were: Mrs M J Halenbeck mother of Mrs. Pence, Mr and Mrs Frank McClain, Mrs E A Barney, Clarence and Mary Barney, Neva and Marie Galbreath and Rheua Nickey. J W Holenbeck and wife of Coessa, Mrs A Henry and son, Mrs Don Marlow and daughter, of Mansfield, Ohio, and J H Donaldson of Greenwich Ohio.

Mr and Mrs Pence and family are among Smith townships most highly respected citizens. He is an "up to date" farmer, as his farm, crops, stock and surroundings show. Mrs. Pence—well—few can excell as housekeeper, cook, mother or in fact any duties which a farmers' wife is expected to perform Their son Orval and daughter Estella graduated from the Columbia City high school and are now teaching in Whitley county; the younger son Benj will graduate from the same institution this year.

The guest departed at a late hour, after wishing Mr and Mrs Pence many happy anniversaries and that all may be permitted to help them celebrate again in 1932.

WARNING TO HUNTERS

Mrs. Geo. McCoy who has been at the Hope Hospital for the past two weeks where she underwent an operation for gall stones was brought home Sunday evening. Although much improved she is yet unable to leave her bed.

HAPPILY MARRIED

The wedding of Mr. Milo Hawk and Miss Bertha Huff took place at the M. E. parsonage in this city Wednesday evening, in the presence of only the witnesses who were necessary. Rev. W. H. Miller performed the ceremony. While the wedding has been looked for for some time, it came in the nature of a surprise, so quietly was it planned.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Hawk and is one of the most popular young men in town holding a position at the Arthur Bros store and is an industrious young gentleman.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs James Huff and is a young woman of good common sense and many accomplishments as the writer can verefy as she was an employee of THE TRUTH for three years and was a good faithful and obliging little lady at all times.

Congratulations are advanced by the writer, second by a host of friends and in the words of "old Rip" May they live long and prosper.

united in marriage to Miss Lavina Pence in 1869, but no children were born to them. She still survives. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and Masonic lodges, a staunch republican and a consistent member of the M. E. church.

As a business man Mr. Richey stood for absolute integrity. Nothing that tainted of trickery but aroused his most strenuous opposition instantly. His council on the important affairs of life was much sought by his associates, was freely given and highly respected. Churubusco as a city, and its citizens will miss him. He is no more, but his memory will remain as a stimulus to those who are left. In his death the family circle has been broken; a wife weeps for a devoted husband and over all our people is cast a pall of gloom, for they know their friend is dead.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral of Lemuel Richey was held at his late residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Miller of the M. E. church officiating. His casket was covered with beautiful flowers, while all around the bier were the same tokens of love and esteem from the hands of his family and friends. The services were in charge of the Churubusco Masonic order.

Mabel, the four months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Diffendafer, died at their home in Green township Sunday morning at 3:30 a. m. at the age of 4 month and 2 days. The funeral was held Tuesday at 11 a. m. at Honeywell church.

Thursday morning of last week occured the death of Mrs. James Leitch. The funeral was held Friday at the Hopewell church. The deceased leaves a husband and seven children, the oldest a son 17 years of age. The community extends sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of trouble.

Last Tuesday evening occurred the death of Levi Stahl, after but a brief illness. He was one of our pioneer settlers and an excellent citizen. His funeral was preached Thursday at the Christian Chapel by Rev. Thomas of Churubusco. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the writer.

The funeral was held at the Christian Chapel church at Merriam, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and was very largely attended. Several beautiful floral tributes were noticeable, having been sent as tokens of sympathy by loving friends who feel that they have indeed lost a true friend. Besides his wife he leaves one son, John, who resides near Columbia City, and two daughters, Mrs. George Nickademus, of Smith township and Mrs. Ella Wilson, of Mentone.

REV. LE COUNT MOVES TO LAGRO CHARG

Rev. LeCount, pastor of the U. church in this city resigned suddenl last week and moved his househol goods to Lagro, Ind., where he wi assume charge of the Presbyteria church at that place.

In explanation of the removal Rev LeCount told The Truth man that he had no differences with the local church and that he was making the move because he thought it best and for other reasons he did not care to discuss. The official board were reluctant to see him go, and tried to persuade him to change his mind but without avail.

He is a very capable minister and The Truth takes pleasure in commending him and his excellent family to the people of Lagro.

No minister has been selected as yet for the local charge, and while several are under consideration, the board expects to take plenty of time to dispose of the question and do not expect to make a decision before spring.

The new building will be erected as originally planned, and the resignation of Rev. LeCount will not affect the project. The present building that was advertised for sale, is withdrawn from the market and will not be offered again as they expect to use it in connection with the new building.

DIVORCED AND MARRIED.

Harry L. Gandy a 'Busco boy and Frances Keiser were married at Rapid City, S. Dakota Oct. 30th. He formerly lived at Lagrange where he conducted a newspaper, owned by his father, W. S. Gandy of this city, where Miss Keiser was in his employ. He recently secured a divorce from his first wife, who with the two little children are still living at Lagrange.

Sheldon, after the wedding feast had been served, presented the bride and groom a number of beautiful and valued presents, the gifts of their many friends. Music was furnished by Miss Jessie Crabill, Mrs. L. J. Sheldon and Guy Herron. At a late hour the young people gathered and gave the newlyweds an old time belling. The couple are very estimable young people and have many friends who extend them best wishes. They will reside on farm.

Churubusco woman crowned Miss Limberlost

Jennifer Lynn Gross, 21, of Churubusco, was crowned 2000 Miss Limberlost at a Saturday night pageant held at Cole Auditorium, East Noble High School, Kendallville.

This is the second time Gross has won the Miss Limberlost Scholarship Pageant. She was also crowned 1998 Miss Limberlost two years ago. She went on to finish in the top ten at the Miss Indiana Scholarship Pageant in Terre Haute.

Gross, the daughter of Lynn and Jo Gross of rural Churubusco, is majoring in music education at Ball State University. After attaining her degree she hopes to enjoy a career as a high school music teacher. She is also a member of the Ball State University Singers and was named company manager for the 2000-01 season. She is a member of the BSU Homecoming Steering Committee, Alpha Lamda Delta and Golden Key National Honor Society.

Gross says her hobbies include running and traveling.

For the talent portion of the pageant, which accounts for 30 percent of the total score, Gross sang a rousing rendition of Lena Horne's blues version of "Stormy Weather."

For the swimsuit competition, the 5 foot 8 1/2 inch, 130 pound brunette chose a stunning two-piece royal blue bikini trimmed in white. For the evening gown competition, she wore a white chiffon floor length gown accented with shimmering crystal beads.

Gross won a $3,000 scholarship and will now advance to the 2001 Miss Indiana Scholarship Pageant in June.

HOMER DIFFENDARFER

Born June 9, 1854
Died February 3,1929

HOMER married SARAH MARTIN McCOY, daughter of Isaac and Leticia Christie McCoy, on November 16, 1875, in Noble County, Indiana. They were married by J. P. Moore, Minister. (Rev. Moore was a brother of the father of Mary Ann Moore. Mary Ann Moore was to marry Samuel Spencer Diffendarfer on December 6, 1877.)

Sarah's mother, Leticia was the daughter of James Christie (spelled Christy in the 1850 Census of Independence Township, Beaver County, Pennsylvania) who was born in Ireland. This census showed the James Christie family as Eliza 21, Mary A. 18, James 16, and Leticia 14. James was 52.

Sarah and Homer both attended Huckleberry School. It was a wood building when they attended. The wood building was burned about 1908, and replaced by the brick school building that still stands.

They set up housekeeping in a log house that was located on the S½ of the NE¼ of Section 23--land that had been purchased by Emanuel in September of 1857. It was the first Green Township property owned by Emanuel. The house was some distance from the road and in back of the present home of Harrold Troyer. Eliza, Letitia, Emanuel and Ellen were born here.

They next lived in another log house which was situated near where Laurel Leitch lives today. Maggie would recall to Lura years later that they could lay in bed at night and see the stars through the roof of this house. Maggie, Isaac and Clara were born when they lived in this house.

In November of 1890, Homer bought the SW¼ of the NW¼ of Section 24 from Jos Sobranski. This is the property purchased by Homer Herendeen on December 29, 1929, and now owned by Harold Troyer and lived in by Laura Claxton Troyer. Lawrence, Edna, Eva and Lura were born in this house. Lura wonders today how so many people lived in a house with three bedrooms.

In 1908 the family moved into the new house that Homer had built. Much of the lumber for the house was taken from the farm. Cherry and oak were favored. Lura and Eva recall going to watch the house under construction, and being chased back home.

Homer bought the home place from the other heirs of Emanuel starting in October of 1878 and completing the process in January of 1900. In 1904 he bought from Rosa Blaski and husband, Steve,

Homer and Sarah were successful farmers and wonderful parents. They managed their money well, and made wise real estate investments. The children of Homer and Sarah maintained close relationships with one another and with their parents. The grandchildren were frequent overnight guests. These stories the grandchildren tell about their visits would make a book in itself.

Homer and Sarah were members of the Sugar Grove Church of God.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letters in which you request the Revolutionary War record of John Jacob Diefendorf of Canajoharie, New York.

The data furnished herein were obtained from papers on file in claim for pension, S.12772, based on the service of John Jacob Diefendorff in the Revolutionary War.

John Jacob Diefendorff was born May 14, 1747, at Canajoharie, Tryon (later Montgomery) County, New York. The names of his parents were not designated. His father "and family" was living in Canajoharie, New York, during the Revolution.

While residing in Canajoharie, John Jacob Diefendorff enlisted sometime in April, 1775, served as private and orderly sergeant at various times on short tours in the New York troops, under Captains Henry Diefendorff, Jacob Seeber, Robert Krous, Jacob Diefendorff, Adam Leyp, Colonels Campbell, Ebenezer Cox, Peter Waggoner, Clyde, John Harper, Klock, Willett; he was in the battle of Oriskany, the burning of Springfield, in an engagement at Fort Herkimer, at Cherry Valley, the burning of German Flats, and the battle of Johnstown, his service consisted in scouting, guarding at the forts, and protecting the lives and property of the inhabitants of New York against the depredations of the Indians and British; he continued in the service until in 1782, length of all service about twenty-six months.

John Jacob Diefendorff was allowed pension on his application executed September 25, 1832, then a resident of Canajoharie, New York.

It was not stated whether John Jacob Diefendorff was ever married.

Henry I. Dievendorff (as his signature is shown) was "one of the judges of the Court of Common Pleas" for Montgomery County, New York, in 1832. Jonas Diefendorf was a clergyman in 1832 in Canajoharie; John Diefendorf was a resident of Minden, New York in 1832, and stated that he was well acquainted with John Jacob Diefendorff during the Revolutionary War. It was not shown that these persons were related to the soldier, John Jacob Diefendorff, or that the Captains Henry and Jacob Diefendorff were related to him.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, name and address of person paid, and possibly the date of death of this pensioner, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, Washington, D. C., and furnish the following data:

JOHN married EVE ELIZABETH. From his will we learn that he was a yeoman of Earl Township, and that his children were:

SAMUEL
BENJAMIN
EVE, wife of Jacob Holl
MARGARET, wife of Joel Carpenter
SALOME, wife of Henry Holl
SOPHIA, wife of Henry Rood
JOHN
JUDITH (deceased), wife of John Ruddy her children: Samuel and Emanuel

Samuel had borrowed 500 pounds from his father, and the money was to be repaid after his death in installments to his brothers and sisters. As good faith, Samuel puts up his farm in Earl Township, 89 acres, which adjoins land of Benjamin Diffendarfer and Jacob Holl. This land had been conveyed to him by John and Eve Elizabeth on April 14, 1808.

JACOB married EVA MUELLER, daughter of Adam Mueller, on May 20, 1755. Jacob was a carpenter and later in life an Innkeeper. He lived in the town of New Holland. Their children were:

Dr. C. G. Bachman
New Holland, Pa.

Dear Dr. Bachman-

I was very much pleased to hear from you today and will answer at once conveying such information as is in my possession.

We have in our library definite records which indicate that our pioneer ancestor, John Michael Dubendorffer, who was born at Neresheim, near Heidelberg on January 10, 1695, emigrated to Penna. with his wife and one son, Michael, arriving on the ship "William and Sarah on September 21, 1727. He was married in the old country to Barbara Hasen on January 21, 1721. His young son referred to above was likewise born in the Palatinate on November 4, 1721 and was thus not quite six years of age when he landed with his father in 1727. It is believed that this young son remained in or near what became New Holland until middle life, during which period he took title to a number of parcels of land, descriptions of which I have in my record. He came to Lancaster and in 1765 bought a lot of ground on the north side of East King St. upon which he built the hotel long known as "The Leopard", now known as the "Weber Hotel". He kept this Inn until his death ~~until his death~~ in 1789, after which his son Philip operated the Leopard Hotel.

I might add that on this first recorded ship list in 1727 was also Alexander Dubendorffer, a brother of John Michael, who moved on to more distant counties and appears to have been the progenitor of the Lehigh County branch, where as you know there are or were many of our family name.

It is further a tradition that when the pioneer, John Michael came to the New Holland area, he had few possesions, his nearest neighbors were located at Weber Thal and at Graaf's Thal. His fellow settlers gave him a lift by giving him a cow so that he might have some sort of a material start in his new life.

What hardships those early ancestors endured, and how discontented our present citizens are who have everything, all the comforts of this earthly life and all the blessings that modern science is placing at their disposal without no effort or struggle on their own parts!

I think these few facts will help you in your present endeavor and should you wish more, I should be glad to give them to you, if I am so fortunate as to have them in my record.

So closing with my very kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Harold F. Diffenderffer

Dear Dr. Bachman-

It was very nice to hear from you again, and especially by reason of the nature of your letter.

I have carefully examined the inscription as outlined. I can find no fault with it. I have checked the details - all are correct. Its brevity and dignity of expression are commendable. I am really intrigued by the short 5 line verse for all to read, when the Memorial is in position.

I have the impression that this ancestor, while born near Heidelberg, as stated in my Father's record, spent some portion of his life in Switzerland, since I can also hear my Father saying that he came from "Nahe bei Zurich" , and that slogan appears on all his many bookplates which, in his old age, he carefully pasted in every book in his large Library.

The said Swiss town was called "Dubendorf". Also that same town still exists, live and very progressive. My son, Merle definitely established this fact when, as a representative of the Hamilton Watch Factory, he visited in Europe last May. He spent time in Switzerland and made it a special mission to visit in "Dubendorff." He took some very charming colored slide-pictures in that place. These pictures he has been most happy to show me on his screen, on various occasions.

You will recall that the "Pioneer" was only 32 years of age when he emigrated , bringing with him his little son, Michael, who was born in Europe in Sept. 1721. Thus he was but 6 years old when he also became a ~~Pi~~ Pioneer. This little boy grew up with the new country, profited by its ~~ma~~ many opportunities. He bought various rather large tracts of land in and near New Holland as well as other tracts far up State, he served as one of the burgesses of Lancaster, built the Leopard Hotel in Lancaster in 1765, operated it until his death in 1778, after which it was operated by his son, Philip until 1812. Hope I may be able to come down to New Holland at the time of the dedication. After June 3, I would be free to come nearly any day but Tuesday, which is my Board meeting day.

I wish to add that my last Diffenderffer cousin, from Missouri, Grace Diffenderffer Owen, will visit with me at the close of May. She was the child of my Uncle David. We have been great friends thru a long life and have met from time to time and corresponded regularly. She is very desirous of visiting the old New Holland Church, so we shall come down together.

You have turned my heart and thoughts into congenial channels; I am happy to make this reply. Some day we are looking forward to meeting, in a better world, all these historical characters and old friends.

With my kindest regards,
Sincerely yours,
Harold Diffenderffer

Now 83 plus.

Diffenderfer and a conpanion by the name of Stone were the two first settlers who took up the land upon which New Holland is built and for a mile around it. They were natives of Germany and came to New Holland in 1728. David Diffendarfer, a son of the first settler became early identified with the American patriots in their struggle for independence. He entered the army and served with credit for several years bearing his part in several of the hard fought battles of the Revolutionary history. He died in New Holland in 1846 at a very advanced age. His descendants are numbrous. Dr. W. L. Diffendarfer is one of his grandsons.

Dear Mrs. Diffendaffer:

I am enclosing a copy of a letter I have just written to Mrs. Bradish.

I wondered if you knew that Jacob, son of the immigrant John Michael, had a son named George. Too, there is so little known about Adam and George's families (these are sons of the immigrant J M.) I have not encountered anything that gives names of all the children of Jacob, son of Jacob, sone of the immigrant J M.

The 1820 census for Ohio shows a G. Deffendeffer in Warren county. The same census also shows a Samuel Diffenderfer in Pickaway County. Is this your George? It puts him in the Ohio River area about the right time. And the fact that a member of your family worked on the court house in Fort Wayne sure makes it seem probable that your branch had a close relationship with the group settling in Allen County.

I am very curious about the Philip that appears in East Hempfield village from 1816 through 1822. I keep wondering if he might be the third child of Adam (son of John Michael) and his wife Margaret. You know, Adam died rather young and left a widow and three children. I found baptism records for two of the children, both girls. Adam and Michael were the only two of John Michael's sons whose wills place them in Lancaster. Frank Reid has accounted for Michael's family, but the fact that Adam died young might have caused his family to drift from the Diffenderfer clan.

I just thought of another George possibility for you -- John, son of Jacob, son of J.M. married Anna Maria Gerlach of Lancaster on March 14, 1784. I found baptism records (Reformed Church Records, Lancaster 1736-1806) for --

a. ______________ 3-14-1876
b. George b. 11-5-1787 bapt. 10-19-1788
c. Elizabeth b. 1-1-1792 bapt. 5-20-1792.

I do hope some of these pieces help. If you have anything additional that you think would help me, I'd love to hear about it.

Sincerely,

Mrs. James M. Diffendaffer

Dear Mrs. Grawcock,

In rechecking my file I found I may have a "new" family for you. There is a lady here in Boise who is the great-granddaughter of Samuel Diffendarfer (your spelling). If I am correct he was the brother of your great-grandfather ~~Jacob~~ Emanuel. Perhaps, you already have all this. If not, it may help you.

Dear Mrs. Grawcock,

I was delighted to receive your letter. It seems we are working on the same family lines - at least, away back. All data on the family - all spellings - is of interest to me. Some of the information which I found when I first started seemed useless but it is falling into place, now.

Very recently I found some help on Alexander's line, too. There are seven pages from a book of Lehigh Co., Pa. - have photo copies. If you would like I can have them recopied at our library.

Frank Ried Diffenderffer

(note double f in last part) was quite an historian of the Pa. Germans. I have had correspondence with his grandson who may be able to help. If you plan to visit New Holland perhaps you'd like his address, if you do not already have it.

Harold R. Diffenderffer
1017 Helen Avenue Lancaster, Pa.

There are several Jacobs in the family. Michael, who came to America as a child, had a son Jacob.

John - son of Alexander had a son Jacob b. 1765

Godfrey - oldest son of Alexander - had a son Jacob. b.

Godfrey's 3rd son - Henry b. 1764 had a son Jacob b. 1789

Do you know which might be yours?

George Diffendaffer went to Ohio but I've no idea what year. His widow and sons were in Indiana by 1838, at least. I have tried to find records of Alexander in Fort Wayne but have had no success.

I think it's easier to write to people if you know a bit about them. I am 42 yrs. old. My husband and I are celebrating our silver wedding anniversary this month. We have a married daughter 23 yrs. old who is the mother of our 2 yr. old grandson. We have a 21 yr. old son and one 18 who are college students.

Hoping I've been some help. I will be looking forward to hearing from you - in hopes you have some facts that I do not.

When I know just what you want maybe I can add a bit.

There is a man in Akron, Ohio who is a son of Jacob Diffenderfer & grandson of Michael. He is 85 yrs. old, but writes well and seems very nice. His address—

I have Civil war records of a Jacob Diffendarfer (in some places on this record it is spelled this way & others it is Diffendaffer!). His wife was Ophelia C. Manor. m. March 16, 1865. in Allen Co. Indiana. He enlisted at Davenport, Iowa

He was b. Pa. ~~[illegible]~~. Died Sterling, Colo. May 31, 1896.

I have become interested in tracing the Diffendaffer family in America. The name has been spelled variously - Diefenderfer, Diffenderfer, Diffendafer, Tiefenderfer, etc. If you can help me I would be very grateful. Any family legends or stories may be the clue I need to tie up the loose ends of facts I have so far.

The brothers John and Alexander came to America from Germany in 1727. They sailed from Rotterdam aboard the ship "William and Sarah". John's wife Barbara Hasen and their son Michael were with them. Alexander signed the passenger list but John was ill and unable to write. I do not know if there were any other family members with them. They landed in Philadelphia, Pa. Sept. 18, 1727. Alexander signed the Oath of Allegiance (to England) at the Court House in Philadelphia Sept. 21, 1727. I find no record of John signing, although it was required of all males over 16 years. Perhaps John was too ill but there must be a later record which I haven't found.

Alexander settled in Bucks county, Pa., near the present Kraussdale.

John was the first settler in the area now known as New Holland, in Lancaster co., Pa. and so started the Pennsylvania Dutch settlement. There were 400 Germans who came over on the same ship and many soon settled in the same area. I lost Alexander and his descendants for a long span and I'm not sure if I have the line correct but it seems to be as far as I have it. I am not positive if the line I want is descended from John or Alexander. Please, help me if you can.

The family were members of the Palantine group of Germans and Swiss. They were badly mistreated as a group in Germany and so came to America for religious freedom, as did so many early settlers.

The father of John and Alexander was John Dübendorffer, born Oct. 8, 1663 and lived near Neresheim in Churpfalzishen, near Heidelberg, Germany.

Two brothers John and Alexander came to America from Germany in 1727. They sailed from Rotterdam aboard the ship "William and Sarah". John's wife Barbara Nanna and their son Michael were with them. Alexander signed the passenger list but Johannes was too sick to write. (I do not know if there were any other family members with them.) They landed in Philadelphia, Pa. Sept. 18, 1727. George was a riverboat man who ferried hay to livery stables along the Ohio river and is said to have lost his life in that way. David and his mother Christina purchased land in Frankfort, Ind. in 1838. Alexander helped build the court house in Fort Wayne, Ind. Later Joseph, Alexander and Christina settled in Lewis co., Mo. Joseph and family went to Texas where he and a small daughter died. His sons Thomas Henry, Ira Virgil, Allen and Wm. Shelton moved back to Mo. with their mother who drove a covered wagon, moving on the Texas Road.

Alexand er had 11 children. His son James Greene was my husband's grandfather.

Dear Mrs. Bradish:

We are indeed cousins', and I'm sorry I had not written to you and Mrs. Diffendarfer regarding my findings in Lancaster last fall, but to be perfectly frank I haven't been able to take the time to get the material fully organized. Material on the Diffendarfers is quite plentiful in Lancaster and I only recorded while there and am waiting for a quiet holiday week-end for ogranizing.

However, I can tell you with certainty that we do not descend from Alexander's line. I believe, and a genealogist who worked with me last fall concurs, that we belong to John Michael's line, but so far I have not been able to determine from which of his sons.

Our Jacob married Barbara Kirsch on November 11, 1819, and their marriage is recorded in book 4 of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa. Her parents were Jacob and Elizabeth (Schwar) Kirsch. They are buried in the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Churchyard at East Petersburg (a suburb of Lancaster to the West). Mrs. Kirsch gravestone indicates she was born February 16, 1773 and died Jan. 5, 1832. (Shortly after this date we know Jacob and Barbara were in Indiana.) Jacob Kirsch was born July 8, 1776 and died August 3, 1849. The writing on the gravestones is in German. The story comes to me, through our family, that Barbara spoke German in the home.

The following is a copy of a recording from the Allen County (Fort Wayne area), Indiana, intestate proceedings:

"Misc. 106

"State of Indiana, Allen County, S.S.

"Jarvis Smith, being duly sworn on his oath, says that he was well acquainted with Jacob Diffendarfer, late of Allen County, Indiana, during his lifetime and with his family; that said Jacob Diffendarfer died intestate prior to 1876, and left as his only heirs and children at law: Jacob, Samuel, Emanuel M, Eliza Snyder (wife of George Snyder),* Mary E. Smith (wife of Eli Smith), John D and Susan Gray who was a widow on August 22, 1878; that the said Emanuel M. Diffendarfer died intestate prior to 1878 and left as his only heirs at law the sidow Sarah Diffendarfer(*) and the following children: Samuel S.; August Geiger, who was a widow on November 29, 1879; Homer; Mary Leitch, the widow of Daniel A. Leitch; and James Madison Diffendarfer.

* Barbara Smith, wife of Nathan Smith

Jarvis Smith

"Subscribed and sworn to this 1st day of December, 1902.

Ed. C. Downey, Notary Public"

* Sarah was not the name of Emanuel's widow. This is an error. Emanuel's widow was Eliza Ann Grey Diffendarfer, daughter of Samuel and Ruth (Leech) Grey. Sarah McCoy Diffendarfer was the wife of Homer (son of Emanuel) Diffendarfer, and these were the parents of 16 children, 10 of whom lived to maturity, namely:

Isaac, Lawrence, Emanuel, Eliza Ann, Maggie,
Clara, Edna, Ellen, Eva and Lura.

Lura is my mother and the wife of James Claxton.

Evidently both Jacob (son of Jacob and Barbara) and Samuel went to Colorado, note this second item from the Intestate Records.

"Ophelia Diffendarfer, widow of Jacob Diffendarfer (County of Logan, State of Colorado).

"Surviving was Henry R. Diffendarfer, Ida A. Riordan and Estelle Leitch, Wilford H. Diffendarfer and Flora Diffendarfer, and that Henry R. is unmarried. Name of the husband of Ida is John S. Riordan; Estelle's husband is Al Lincoln Leitch (this may be Litch). Each of above said named children of Jacob Diffendarfer xx and their mates is over age of 21 years and resides in the State of Colorado, except Wilford who resides in Texas and Henry R. who lives in Alberta, Canada. Samuel Diffendarfer, brother of her deceased husband, who was unmarried in Alameda County, State of Colorado, summer of 1919."

~~Is it true that Samuel would have been a widower at that time?~~ yes

This next item, which at the moment I cannot give you the origin, I found in the library one day -- if it is meaningful to you, I am sure I could find it again. As I recall it concerned the death notice of William.

"Isabella Alcorn Diffendarfer, Van Buren County, Iowa, wife of Benjamin Diffendarfer, was the mother of William Diffendarfer, grandmother of Davis Diffendarfer and the mother of Mary Diffendarfer Stewart."

Following are excerpts from the Eel River Baptist Church Records:

"2-16-1848	Jacob Diffendarfer baptised and given right hand of fellowship by Elder Bingham.
5-13-1848	Sister Diffendarfer baptised.
4-18-1848	Jabob Diffendarfer elected to board of Trustees of church and became a member of the building committee. They voted to build a new church on land owned by Mr. Coffries.
1-20-1849	...On motion the church voted that the meeting should be held at the home of Brother Diffendarfer until further proceedings.
12-22-1849	Jacob Diffendarfer elected treasurer of the church. Took office January 19, 1850.
2-17-1877	Samuel and wife requested letters of transmission.
1875	Franklin Diffendarfer requested letter from Eel River.
5-13-1876	Sarah Ann and Jessa requested letters of transmission.
1872	Samuel Diffendarfer appointed on Church building committee."

If I can, I'll get a photostat of the land area in Eel River Twp. showing land holdings of Jacob and Samuel, as well as other Diffendarfers. The home built by Jacob and Barbara is less than one mile from my home. Both the house and barn still stand but in very sad state. They had a lovely site and the land was wonderfully rich river-bottom land. It was quite a large two-story house.

The following is an excerpt from an early history of Allen County.

"Jacob Diffendarfer was one of the three first trustees of the Baptist Church, Eel River (April 15,11848). He was also elected two weeks later to the building committee.

"The first sawmill in Eel River Township was erected by Smith and Diffendarfer in 1852. It was situated on the bank of the Eel River from which it received its power. The general desire for better residences than the log created a demand for sawed lumber and the mill proved a profitable investment to its proprietors. It was successful for a number of years, but was finally sufferred to go to decay."

The Smith partner was either Nathan or Eli Smith. Both were sons-in-law of Jacob. Nathan married Barbara and Eli married Mary Ann.

While in Lancaster I found Jacob listed in the tax assessments for East Hempfield Village (this is now known as the ~~East Petersburg~~ Rohrerstown area). These records indicate that Jacob is a wagonmaker. The only other propertied Diffendarfer listed in tax assessments for this area is for a Philip. This made me wonder if this could be a brother, or perhaps even the father of Jacob. Philip, too, was a wagonmaker. He appears in the records starting in 1816 and continues through 1822 and seems to have been moderately prosperous. Jacob first appears in 1820 and continues through 1834. Also starting in 1831 is a record for Diffendarfer and Hoeffgen. These records also indicate that a John and Henry Diffendarfer were in East Hempfield Village from 1837 through 1844. They were listed as inmates which would mean they did not have property, and in view of the fact that Jacob and Barbara baptised a son Johannes (born April 20, 1821 and baptised May 5, 1822) in the Trinity Lutheran Church at Lancaster, this John could well be their son. Further, a Henry Diffendarfer appears at the home of Benjamin N. Smith on the 1850 census for Eel River Township. He is 30 years of age and a laborer from Penna. Perhaps he is a brother of Jacob. Jacob's son Henry appears on that census as 8 years old; he is to die at the age of 21 years on April 1, 1863, of wounds received at the battle of Stone River. Emanuel, Jacob's second son to die as a result of the Civil War, contracted typhoid while serving as a hospital corpsman at Bowling Green, Ky. He is buried at the Civil War Veterans Cemetery at Bowling Green. He was a school teacher. and farmer.

Jacob Diffendarfer and his wife are buried in the Eel River Cemetery, just about 2 miles from where I live. His gravestone indicates he died on February 8, 1871 at the age of 71 years and 3 days. Barbara died December 4, 1863 at the age of 63 years.

Dear Mrs. Grawcock

I had been hoping to hear from you as Mrs. Diffendaffer here said she'd sent my address to you. However I thought you might like the enclosed information.

I was very interested in your letter to her as we do tie in with Jacob & Barbara altho I can't find the missing link from there. I hope your trip last fall helped you. Did you find the tie with either Alexander or John Michael?

Hoping to hear from you and if you want additional information that I didn't include, I'd be happy to send it.

Dear Roberta,

Quite some time ago you wrote to Lura Claxton to inquire about Jane Moore. I am the one in our family interested in family histories, so Lura, my mother, asked me to respond. I have done family research for many years, and have boxes and boxes of material. I have just now, white working on a special project, come across the name Zoe Diffendarfer and wanted to tell you about it.

Following is something I copied from a local history book many years ago:

> "Harry and Hannah (James) Diffendarfer came from their native state of Pennsylvania in 1873. They had a son, Oliver H., who was born at Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, on October 20, 1863. Harry and Hannah also had two other childeen, Mary and Clarence. Oliver married Minnie Brady in 1885. They had four children: Earl, Vern, Nadene and Zoe."

Is this your Aunt Zoe?

There were two Moores that married Diffendarfers, but I don't know if they would be related to the Moores you mention.

Madison Diffendarfer (1858-1923), my mother's uncle, was married to a Nettie Moore (1861-1931). Nettie had been married earlier to an Ardman by whom she had a daughter, Julia.

Spencer Diffendarfer (1856-1933), also a brother to my mother's father, was married to Mary Moore (1858-1937). They had three daughters, Lura, Anna, and Oma.

The fact that you live in Colorado makes me ask whether you are related to the Jacob Diffendarfer whose wife, at his death, was Ophelia. His children were Henry R., Ida A. (who married John Riordan), and Estelle, who married A. Lincoln Litch. Jacob had and unmarried brother named Henry.

We are descended from Jacob Diffendarfer who came to the Eel River Township of Allen County, Indiana, about 1838, with his wife, Barbara, and their children-- John, Emanuel, Susannah, Barbara, Jacob, Samuel, Mareann, Lisa An, and Henry.

We do know that we are descended from the John Michael Diffendarfer who came to the United Stated with his wife Barbara and young son, Michael, and brother Alexander in 1726. We do not know from which of his sons we descend, but believe it is from Jacob. Jacob had brothers named John, George, Adam, John David, and Michael named above. His sisters were Christina and Mary.

If you have information that would help us bridge the gap between our Jacob and one of the sons of John Michael, I sure would appreciate hearing from you.

I would be interested to know more of your Diffendarfer ancestery.

Sincerely,

Lou Grawcock

P.S. One thing that I should add--we descend from Jacob's son, Emanuel. Jacob's son, Jacob, was born 1-30-1828 and died 5-31-1896 at Sterling, Colorado.

Dear Laura;

Thelma Leitch sent me your name. I am trying to locate some information on the Diffendarfer name. I am doing Genealogy Research on my husbands family line and have run across a problem with the Moore line. All the ~~a~~records I can find say his great grandmother Jane Moore Geiger's parents were Samuel and Mary ~~Cooley~~ Moore. Both Uncle Red and Aunt Zoe said they were sure her maiden name was Diffendarfer. Do you know of a second marriage or of any connection to the Diffendarfers and Moore's.

COOLEY.

This is what I have on her.

Dear Lou,

Your letter was very interesting to me as I had no name, marriage date or parents for Barbara.

I have a copy of Philips will which leaves all to his wife and brothers. So from that I can assume we rule out Michael, Daniel & Peter (Baltimore) and Philip (no heirs listed and Ludwig who had just two dau mentioned in the will. That leaves us David (whom Philip must have thought was self/sustaining as he wasn't mentioned in Philip's will) and George. In the will he leaves all to brother George eventually. He mentions a George Jr as receiving a "fowling piece." It also seems if I remember correctly (Marge has my will to copy) that George had a son Michael who was insane. (I'll check w/ marge tomorrow) So thats the way Michael stacks up. Leaving us J. M's sons John, Jacob George & Adam. Right?

Those on the enclosed sheets are incomplete where the children of John, Jacob, George, Adam are as the D.A.R., S.A.R. records only list direct lines.

Does any of this make any sense. It confuses me. The more I get the more mess I seem to acquire. I think I should get me a filing system.

I am also working on the Heffelfingers in your area. I rec'd a letter from Eel River Cemet. saying that Perpetual Care for Graves of Jacob Diff. and Jacob Heffel. & John Heffel. was paid by a Elizabeth Rhodes. My great grandmother was Sarah Heffelfinger but how come Rhodes enters in both sides as late as 1923.? Do we have a Diffendarfer-Heffelfinger union again in the next generation?

Well any way I'd better catch the mailman.
Write when you can & we'll compare again

Mrs. Robert Grawcock,
R. D. #2
Churubusco, Indiana

Dear Mrs. Grawcock:

I am happy to respond to your letter of September 28, although I am not sure I can be of specific help to you. My Grandfather, Frank Ried Diffenderffer, Litt.D, was somewhat of a self-made historian, genealogist, newspaper editor and highly respected gentleman in this area, having died at the age of 88 in 1921. I was almost too young to remember him very well, but he did enjoy a favorable local (and even state-wide) reputation as an "authority" on subjects of local history, etc.

My grandfather, about 1908 published privately a book detailing his linage back to 1663 and did a bit of subjective conjecture about linage back to the time of the Crusades. In his book he made it clear that he was tracing basically his own linage and was not attempting to trace out collateral branches. I suspect your linage is along one of the collateral branches and I will return to that subject later in this letter.

I note you plan to be in this area in a few weeks. I regret I will not be able to see you at that time, for I anticipate being on vacation myself that week and expect to be travelling at some distance from Lancaster. There are a great many Diffenderffers buried in the churchyard of St. Stephens United Church of Christ at New Holland. Some of the graves are quite close to the church, and I never took the trouble to determine just how they were related to my own linage, but related they must be, because the Diffenderffers were/among the first settlers in the New Holland area, and one of them owned extensive lands in the area to the north and east of the town, which today probably has a population of about 8,000. Four generations of my own family are buried in a single area of the cemetary, marked by a pillar-type central monument that was erected shortly after the Civil War era. The genration before that was buried in Lancaster, near the center of the city and that grave is lost - a municipal parking lot now covers the site.

There are quite a few Diffenderffers in Lancaster and presumably others in the county, but mostly they spell their name "Diffenderfer" and we do not claim relationship, although doubtless there must be some kinship, a minimum of five generations back. My only close Diffenderffer relatives are second cousins, many of whom live in the area of St. Louis and Lebanon, Missouri.

We have a fine historical society in Lancaster, with a library of some interest, and it is located next to the home of James Buchanan in the western part of the city. While I don't know what they have there, you might be rewarded by a visit to their library.

The big question is whether you are descended from John or Alexander. Of Alexander, my Grandfather wrote: "He took up 150 acres of land, then lying in Bucks County (Penna.), now partly in Bucks and partly in Lehigh counties. His name appears in a list of the members of the Great Swamp Church in 1736. He was naturalized in September 1740. He died on Nov. 29, 1768, leaving a widow and five children, Anna Margaret (wife of John Nicholas Oehl), Godfrey (born 1730, died 1806), Gertrude, wife of Henry Miller, Alexander and John. I have a full family tree of all his descendents". Thus wrote my grandfather. I suspect this family tree of Alexander may exist yet at my Mother's home. Within the past week I did some looking for it, without success.

This is my grandfather's only remark on Alexander. Apparently he had little interest in him except that he did (in 1908) have Alexander's family tree. I suspect it is still in the family somewhere but we have so much material collected and saved by by grandfather, that it is a big job sorting to know just what we do have. (My own father died three years ago and he had better knowledge than do I, of what materials and records we have.)

What I want to say is that perhaps the Bucks County or the Lehigh County Historical Societies might have some data on Alexander. I simply do not know. Bucks County is in the area north of Philadelphia and has many historic associations of the early days of this Commonwealth. Lehigh County is the çounty in which the prosperous city of Allentown is located. A visit to either place might be helpful but this is purely suggestion. Grandfather mentions "Great Swamp Church". Now I do not know just what church he refers to. There is a "Swamp Church" (United Church of Christ) quite active and operating today in the vicinity of Ephrata, about 8 or 10 miles to the north of New Holland. Perhaps there was a "Great Swamp Church" in the Bucks County area - this I do not know. Lying a few miles south of New Holland is Zeltenreich's Church (also United Church of Christ) and some of the early Diffenderffers were associated with that church.

Now, then, in looking thru my Grandfather's book I see this in the way of descent:

Earliest progenitor of whom there is a record: John Dubendorffer. Born Oct. 8, 1663 in either Germany or Switzerland (probably the latter). He had two sons, John Michael, born Jan. 10, 1695 and Alexander (date of birth not given)

John Michael (above) had a son Michael, born before arrival in America on November 4, 1721 and he arrived in this country as a baby with his parents. This Michael was quite a land buyer and owned extensive real estate in the New Holland area and later in Lancaster. It was Michael who is buried where now a city parking lot exists.

Michael was married three times and had a total of 9 children, three by each wife. This is where the family tree gets complicated. My own descent is thru the first born of the second wife who was one Elizabeth Rapp. The nine children are named by by grandfather but none carries the name of Jacob. These nine children would have been born in the period 1743 to perhaps 1770. Michael died Sept. 3, 1789.

My Grandfather did not trace out the linage of all of these 9 children, although one (John George) moved to Martinsburg, Virginia about 1800, and three (Michael, Peter, and Daniel) moved to Baltimore, Md.

My Grandfather states the above mentioned Michael had eight brothers and sisters, not all of them named, but I note with interest to you that one of them (apparently No. 3) is listed as Jacob. No dates of birth or death are given although he later annotated the printed page in his handwriting to say his wife's name was Eve. The mother of these children died March 15, 1785, so it is presumptive that this Jacob would have been born perhaps about 1750, since her husband had died in 1778. (There seems some discrepancy in these dates.) No other information is given about this Jacob Diffenderffer or Dubendorffer as the name was also preferably spelled.

There is a handwritten note in my Grandfather's book of some interest and yet so elusive. I can only quote it for what it is worth:

"In the Orphans Court docket for 1801-1803, page 123 it is recorded that Jacob Diffenderffer died since April 19, 1794. His children were Jacob, George, Margaret (married to John Diffenderffer) and John. He owned a house and lot on Main Street in New Holland, adjoining lands of John Roland, Christian Primer (or Brimmer) and John Diffenderffer, containing about ½ acre. It was bought by Jacob. Each child received £ 51 . 17 . 6. I. e. English currency. Who was this Jacob D???"

You will note this is a reference to a Jacob Diffenderffer who was apparently a man in position to purchase property at the time - i. e. in the period of about 1801 to 1803. But my Grandfather adds the tantilizing question: who was he? Apparently he was not sure of the identity, and this is one of several Diffenderffers mentioned in the book that seemed to come upon the scene without certainty of their descent.

I am afraid all this leads up to the proverbial "so near and yet so far". I am by no stretch of the imagination even an amateur genealogist. I imagine a person trained in this sort of thing, might be able to do some further tracing from tidbits of information contained in this letter.

In New Holland today - or in recent years there resides a man named Scott Diffenderfer (who is not a close relative of mine and whom I have never met, although I assume we do stem from common ancestry. I have no knowledge as to whether he is interested in any of the background of the family, but I am certain that his is considerably different from mine, and if he has any of his family tree, there is a remote chance a Jacob might turn up there. I see no listing for him in the telephone book and since I have not heard of him for some years he may have passed away. There is an Irvin Diffenderfer listed in New Holland at 115 Earl Avenue. I have heard of this man but do not know him.

Your reference to earlier Diffendarfers: Homer, Emmanuel and the latter's death during the Civil War are entirely foreign to my knowledge. I imagine when any one traveled as far away as Indiana a century and a half ago, kin-folk after a generation or two, would lose track of one another.

I might add that most of the early Diffenderffers were affiliated with the German or Dutch Reformed Church, although a few were Lutherans and at least one set became Episcopalians - at least to the extent of baptism.

I do hope your forthcoming visit to this area will be pleasing and I would urge you to investigate the considerable number of Diffenderffer graves in the church yard of St. Stephens's Church in New Holland. As mentioned there are quite a few Diffenderffer graves fairly close to the church which (as I recall) are in the era of the late 1700's and on into the third, fourth and fifth decades of the 1800's. They might possibly be helpful. The present minister of the church is a comparative new comer and I doubt if he could help. The older minister had a stroke several years ago and it would be impossible to talk with him. He was somewhat of an authority on area history, but with no particular interest in the Diffenderffer name. The stained glass window behind the pulpit of the church is in the nature of a memorial by my Grandfather and/his Brother and sister.

Lancaster County is quite a tourist center in recent years, with a variety of attractions and quite a variety of motels etc. I'm sure you will have no difficulty passing several days in the area.on pure sightseeing, and I surely trust your visit here will be pleasant and worthwhile.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Grawcock,

This is to say that I received your letter and sincerely apologize for not answering sooner but I was on leave for a while and of course my correspondence was neglected.

Although I am supposed to be a descendant of the Diffenderfer Clan, I have never tried to trace my ancestry. It is written in a brief history of New Holland that John Michael Diffenderfer, with his wife Barbara and son Michael, reached Philadelphia on September 21, 1727, on the ship "William & Sarah". They came from Neresheim, near Heidelberg, Germany. The following year he and his family, moved their possessions to a location near New Holland. John Diffenderfer is believed to be the first settler in the vicinity of New Holland and is regarded as its founder. In the course of a few years other Germans located in the neighborhood. Among these was Rev. Jon Casper Stoever, who accompanied a group of Lutherans to the section, and secured a grant of land for the use of the Lutheran Church. Some of the new arrivals , Leonard Stone, Christopher Heickers and Wendle Zwecker, laid out building lots. Michael, son of John Diffenderfer, also secured a tract of land and proceeded to lay out buliding lots.

I am also including with this letter a newspaper article I came across the other day concerning a Christian Diffenderfer, located in Lancaster, Pa. Thought you might like the article. If I am able to secure any more information, I will certainly pass it along to you.

Even though we have not met, it is very nice to know that I may have relatives in Indiana.

Sincerely yours,

Self-Taught Woodworking Still Alive

By BOB REEHLING
New Era Staff Writer

The cypress knees never sold well so there are still several dozen hanging from the rafters in Christian L. Diffenderfer's woodworking shop. They look like big, dusty wooden tears.

"Every once in a while somebody comes in for one," Diffenderfer said. "They make lamps out of them or just paint them for use as decoration. I had a couple hundred to start with. They just didn't move too well."

SOME DON'T SELL

The cypress knees are among the few objects that don't sell well in Diffenderfer's shop, known as Custom Woodcraft Co., 853 N. Queen St.

Diffenderfer, sixty, specializes in hand made reproductions of antique furniture. His main products are seven different styles of plank bottom chairs. He also builds settees, drop-leaf tables, corner cupboards, captain's chairs and children's furniture of early American design.

He works in pine, poplar, cherry and walnut and builds furniture "the way they used to — by hand." Since he started 30 years ago, Diffenderfer figures he's built about 18,000 chairs.

SELF-TAUGHT WORKER

He is a self-taught woodworker ("nobody would help me") whose attention to detail is meticulous. His shop is a 42 by 32-foot cement block building that he built himself in 1943. He designed much of his own machinery.

Diffenderfer got his start in the thirties when his job in the foundry of a local company didn't satisfy him. His first shop was a garage he built out of old tobacco crates in Rossmere.

His first products were wood trays which he made for another company which painted Pennsylvania Dutch designs in them. Diffenderfer invented a machine tool which would cut a ring of wood out of a solid block. The ring was cut in quarters and used on the corners of the tray rim. "That tool was what really set me up in business," he says.

CARRIED MACHINERY ON BUS

"It was a little tough in the beginning. Most of the time we didn't have too much work. I used to sharpen saws for 35 cents to bring in a little money. We had no car, so when I got enough money to start buying small machinery, I had to bring it home on the bus."

"I got practically no help in learning the trade from anyone. I suppose woodworkers don't like to give away their secrets. Mostly I learned from my mistakes. One day a guy was in here while I was gluing a table top. He said I was doing it all wrong. Then he showed me the right way. That's how I learned woodworking," said Diffenderfer.

As he became more skilled, Diffenderfer started turning out furniture, a piece at a time, "as close to the way it used to be done as I can."

He also does custom work and refinishing. "My wife is the one who runs the refinishing end of the business," he says.

ONLY GLUE, NO NAILS

Although Diffenderfer's shop contains modern machinery like the lathe on which he turns the chair legs, the assembling and finishing of each stick of furniture is done by hand. "We use only glue on the furniture, no nails."

It is important to remember that Diffenderfer's furniture is a reproduction of an antique style. This is the way it is sold.

There are people who make "genuine antiques" and sell them as genuine antiques. Some of these people are no longer in circulation because its against the law.

Dear Mr. Diffenderfer:

I want to thank you for your kindness in responding to my genealogical plea. It certainly was a delightful surprise to write to a Postmaster for information about a family and learn that he, too, is a member.

The article about Christian and his unique business was very interesting and I have just written to him.

The information you gave in your letter should provide a most helpful guide for my library research.

I am looking forward, with much anticipation, to the time when I can take a holiday to New Holland and Lancaster to research the local records pertaining to our family. I understand this area of the country is especially beautiful in the autumn -- during apple-butter making time.

Again, thank you so much for your time and help. If you should sometime vacation in the Indiana area and would like to meet your family members here, let me know and I'll be happy to arrange accommodations and introductions for you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Robert Grawcock

Dear Mr. Diffenderfer:

I am a great-great-grandaughter of Jacob Diffendarfer who came to Allen County, Indiana, probably in the early 1840's. His wife's name was Barbara. He was born February 5, 1800 (as near as I can determine), near Lancaster or New Holland, Pennsylvania. His children were Mary Ann, Susan, Barbara, Elizabeth, Jacob, Samuel, Emanuel M. (who died while serving in the Civil War), John and Henry.

Jacob and a son-in-law built and operated the first saw mill in Eel River Township, Allen County. The mill got its power from Eel River.

My husband and I live on a 200 acre farm just one mile from Eel River and the site of the early saw mill and farm home of Jacob and his family.

This past summer I wrote to the Postmaster of New Holland to see if he might be able to put me in touch with a member of the Diffendarfer family from the New Holland area. As it developed, the Postmaster is Irvin V. Diffenderfer. While he, as he phrased it, is supposed to be a descendent of the Diffenderfer clan, he has never tried to trace his ancestry. He did, however, give me the background information that he possessed and included with his letter a copy of the article about you and your business which appeared in the New Era paper on Monday, August 10.

Because your interest and work involves history, in a sense, I thought perhaps you would have some genealogical information about the family that you would share with me.

I have read a couple of short articles about a David Diffendarfer from New Holland, Pennsylvania, who fought in the Revolutionary War. I'd like to determine whether or not Jacob Diffendarfer was directly descended from David.

Dear Mrs. Diffendaffer:

Last week I wrote to Irvin Diffenderfer of New Holland, Pennsylvania, and asked for the names of the ministers for the Lutheran and Reformed churches. His reply also told me that you, too, are interested in learning more of the history of the Diffenderfer family (you'll note we already have three different spellings).

Jacob Diffendarfer was my great, great grandfather. He and his wife, Barbara, came to Indiana, probably in the early 1840's with their children Mary Ann, Susan, Barbara, Elizabeth, Jacob, Samuel, Emanuel M, John and Henry. They came from New Holland and I am now in the process of determining their relationship to the John Michael Diffenderfer who was one of the first settlers of New Holland, about 1727 or 1728.

My sister and I are planning to visit New Holland and Lancaster during October. If you are working on this same family, we certainly would like to hear from you further and to share what we have collected thus far.

Our family is descended from Emanuel (who served and died during the Civil War). He married Eliza Gray (dau. of Samuel and Ruth Leech Gray) and their children were Samuel Spencer, Augusta (married a Geiger), Homer (my grandfather), Mary (married a Leitch) and James Madison.

I am a member of the National Genealogical Society, and just last week I wrote them to learn whether there were other members working on the Diffenderfer history. We might get some help there, too. I would most enjoy hearing from you and learning of your family.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Robert L. Grawcock

I am working on a history of my mother's family, Diffendarfer, and was advised by a Lancaster genealogist that the church records of New Holland might offer some real help. My great, great grandfather, Jacob Diffenderfer and his wife, Brabara, came to Indiana betwe n 1835 and 1840 with their children. We know they came from near New Holland, and I am trying to determine their possible relationship with John Michael Diffenderfer, one of New Holland's earliest settlers.

My sister and I plan to visit Lancaster and New Holland about mid October, and we were wondering if we might review the early records of your church for information concerning our family?

I have corresponded briefly with Mr. Irvin Diffenderfer and through him learned your name. If you have any suggestions that you feel might help us, we would be happy to hear them.

Dear Mr. Diffenderfer:

I am still working on that Diffenderfer family tree and plan to spend some of my vacation time in Pennsylvania next month (October).

I have been told that the church records from the old Lutheran and Reformed churches might provide some very helpful information. Since my time will be very short I was wondering if you might once again help me by acquainting me with the names of the Pastors of these churches in the New Holland area, or the church clerics so that contact can be made before my visit. If you can give me their names or just the correct name and address of the churches, I'll write immediately and perhaps learn whether they have information that will help.

Dear Mrs. Boggs:

I am doing research on the family of Diffendarfer.

My maiden name was Mary Lou Claxton, my mother is Lura Diffendarfer Claxton, daughter of Homer and Sarah McCoy Diffendarfer. Homer was the son of Emanuel M. and Eliza Gray Diffendarfer (Emanuel died during the Civil War and was buried at the Veteran's Cemetery at Bolling Green, Kentucky.). Emanuel was the son of Jacob and Barbara Kirsch Diffendarfer who came to Indiana from Pennsylvania sometime during the 1830s. To date I have not been able to tie Jacob to the family of John Michael Diffenderffer who came to America on the ship William and Sarah in 1727. He settled near New Holland, Pennsylvania.

I found your name on some the materials at the Lancaster Historical Society last fall and thought perhaps you could add some pieces to my puzzle. Another name that appears with that of Jacob in East Hempfield Village tax assessment records during the period 1816 through 1822 is the name of Philip Diffenderffer.

The genealogist who helped me last fall that our Jacob was probably descended from Jacob, son of Jacob, son of the immigrant John Michael. I am writing to you because, if I interpreted correctly, this is your branch of the family too.

I would be happy to share with you any of the material I have collected.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Robert Grawcock

As a descendent of the Diffendarfer family, I am interested in tracing their history in America. In a recent letter from Mrs. James M .Diffendaffer of Boise, Idaho, your name was given to me as a possible source of aid.

My great, great grandfather was Jacob Diffendarfer (born about 1800 near New Holland, Pennsylvania). He came to Allen County, Indiana, about 1840 with his wife, Barbara, and their children. He died intestate prior to 1876 and left as his heirs -- Jacob, Samuel, EmanuelM, Eliza Snyder, wife of George Snyder; Barbara Smith, wife of Nathan Smith; Mary E. Smith, wife of Eli Smith; John D and Susan. EmanuelM. (my great grandfather) died during the civil war and left a widow Eliza Gray Diffendarfer and the following children: Samuel S, Augusta (who was married to a Geiger), Homer (my grandfather), Mary (widow of Daniel A. Leitch), and James Madison Diffendarfer.

Do any of these names ring a bell with you? I certainly would apprecaite hearing from you about your family and about any of the Diffendarfer history that you can supply.

Gentlemen:

In early October I plan to spend some vacation at New Holland and Lancaster, Pennsylvania, for the express purpose of working on the early history there of the family of Diffenderfer. The Diffenderfer family arrived in the New Holland area about 1728 and I want to get as much background as possible on their activities in New Holland and the surrounding area through 1835.

I would appreciate very much learning the name of any other member of the Society working on this family or on the family of Claxton.

Can you advise me whether there may be articles or materials in the Society Library on either of these two families that I might borrow by mail? If so, I am most interested in receiving the material and would be happy to remit the service charges involved.

Are you aware of an existing record of baptisims and marriages from the Lutheran and Reformed churches of the New Holland area? I would be interested in learning where this might be seen or borrowed or purchased if one is available.

If there is a National Genealogical Society member in New Holland, Pennsylvania, and the Society permits, I would like to learn his name and perhaps in this way make my visit to New Holland more fruitful.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Diffenderfer:

Here I am again! While I was sorting through my papers this morning, I remembered your mentioning that you believed your sister or brother indicated one of their ancestors as Philip. Perhaps Philip is our ancestor, too.

While I was in Lancaster, I went through some tax assessments for East Hempfield Village (understand this is now Rohrerstown) and found my ancestor Jacob listed there from 1821 through 1836. There was a Philip listed starting in 1816 and continuing through 1822. So I am beginning to wonder if this Philip could be your ancestor and perhaps the father of our Jacob.

I didn't get to contact either your brother or sister, but sure would appreciate hearing from them regarding the Philip you mentioned. I'd be especially interested in learning the names of his children. Will you ask them to write to me and give me any information they might have -- maybe together we can trace our family back to the immigrant John Michael.

I do hope the winter has been kind to you and that you and Mrs. Diffendarfer and enjoying good health.

Dear Mrs. Grawcock:

Further to my letter of September 30: I spent a few minutes today in the library of the Lancaster County Historical Society and I note they have quite a library on local genealogy.

I made a few notes which I am enclosing and trust you can read my not-so-good handwriting. The Sunday librarian is not the one on duty other days in the week, but the librarian today was extremely helpful. They have a card index on names (family) and I especially commend to you the Index to Ellis & Evans' "History of Lancaster County". There are many Diffenderffers listed on these pages, citing other sources of information in library. You might find this quite helpful.

I found several references to a Jacob Diffenderfer who fought in the Civil War. Whether or not this is the "Jacob" identified in your letter, I am not certain. It would seem that your "Jacob" would have been too old to have been involved in the Civil War.

In any event, I think you might find several hours at the local Historical Society very interesting and rewarding.

Incidentally I saw a brief sketch of some of Alexander's linage. The librarian found it in a "proceedings" or booklet published periodically by ???the American Genealogical Society ??? or some such organization in Washington, D. C.

You might find that of some passing interest too. It is brief and will not take long to review.

Incidentally I find my own grandfather's genealogy there in two forms: the original pamphlet-type booklet as well as the more formal book containing the Owens family genealogy as compiled by my second cousin in the years just before World War II. This (these) publications have some interesting background information on the origins of the family and their association with one of the Crusades.

Sincerely,

Harold R. Diffenderffer

the graves of innumerable Diffenderfer's some of the stones are in German and Many of them are in good Condition. There is a six sided Monument to the family and marks the grave of the only Revolutionary soldier in the cemetery David Diffenderfer.

Well this is about all the information I have at the present and I'll tell you what I will do. If I can find one of these histories I will Mail it to you. but it seems there were few copies printed In any event I would be glad to hear from you at any time.

There have been family histories written on the John Diffenderfer (who settled New Holland) but I have so far not been able to get one.

I am planning to visit New Holland about the middle of October and am going to make an effort to find one.

The grave of John Diffenderfer never has been exactly located but is known to be in a cemetery close to New Holland

The Reformed Church (Name now changed) in New Holland is over two Hundred years old and the cemetery contains you mentioned an Eliza Diffenderfer that name sounds familiar, I think I heard my aunts talk about her but I never remember meeting her.

Your mention of your Mother Lura also rings a bell as you say, as my aunt Sarah (my fathers sister) had a little girl and they called her Lura. she is now living in New Holland. and I usually call on her when I visit New Holland.

The post master in New Holland is a Diffenderfer a second cousin.

There are many relatives in New Holland some of them I have never met

I was raised by my mothers people and had a very hectic childhood. I was put to work at about 15 years and have been on my own ever since.

George & Nell MacDonald
304 West Woodland
Fort Wayne, IN 46807

Dear Historic Property Owner:

On behalf of the Historic Preservation Review Board, I am pleased to notify you that your property at 304 West Woodland is located in one of Fort Wayne's local historic districts. Authorized by the Historic Preservation and Protection Ordinance, local districts are designated to officially recognize areas which best represent the historical and architectural development of the City. The ordinance also provides a measure of protection for these properties.

Regulations and Penalties

The ordinance requires that a Certificate of Appropriateness must be issued by the Historic Preservation Review Board prior to making conspicuous changes in the exterior appearance of any historic or nonhistoric buildings. Alterations, additions, demolitions, reconstructions, new construction, and the moving of buildings must receive approval of the Board. Appurtenances such as walls, fences, light fixtures, steps, paving, signs, and maintenance involving exterior color changes also must pass Board review.

Certificates of Appropriateness have to be granted before a permit is issued for, or work begun on, proposed exterior alterations. Failure to comply with H.P.R.B. regulations is in violation of the ordinance. Owners making exterior alternations without a Certificate can be fined up to $300 per day for each offense. Demolitions can be subject to fines not exceeding $2,500 per day.

Regulations set forth in the Historic Preservation and Protection Ordinance are not an attempt to severely limit the rights of historic property owners. The ordinance permits the Review Board the power to monitor changes, which are expected to occur in historic districts, in an effort to conserve, preserve, and maintain cultural, architectural, and historical resources.

Public Assistance

Local historic districts are valuable tools used by citizens in order to upgrade and stabilize neighborhoods, enhance property values, increase the salability of their residences, and preserve the character and integrity of the environment in which they live. Occasionally, Federal funds become available for properties in historic districts. Fort Wayne's Community Development and Planning Division offers Historic Facade Challenge Grants for commercial buildings in the case of downtown, and Federal tax investment credits are currently available for income-producing properties which qualify for these credits.

Community Development and Planning staff provide technical assistance for owners of historic properties. We welcome any questions or concerns you might have regarding your property, local historic districts, or the ordinance (427-1140).

Application Procedures

Applications for Certificates of Appropriateness are available in the office of Community Development and Planning, located on the eighth floor of the City-County Building. The Board cannot consider more than ten (10) cases per month and applications must be received prior to the first working day of the month. There are no fees required for the submission of applications. A copy of the Review Board's schedule and submission dates for receiving applications is enclosed.

Thank you for your consideration and assistance in preserving Fort Wayne's valuable historical, architectural and cultural resources.
